These statements need to be cut out, put in order and then arranged into paragraphs with the three following sub-headings:

Churchill's childhood

His wife and children

The Second World War

He and his wife had five children.

Churchill's mother did not visit him very often at school and he was heard to say that he hardly spoke to his father when growing up.

After having their fifth child, Churchill and his wife moved to their final home, Chartwell in Kent.

He was, however, very close to his nanny, Mrs Everest.

Churchill became Prime Minister in 1940, during the Second World War.

He found school difficult and also had a speech impediment which he was very conscious of.

Despite this, Churchill was not voted back in as Prime Minister in the 1945 election.

Churchill married in 1908.

Winston Churchill was born in 1874 into an aristocratic family.

His speeches inspired people during the war and he was believed to be a great war leader.
