Venter, 2017-04-03 Following the publication of Al Venter's successful Portugal's Guerrilla Wars in Africa shortlisted by the New York Military Affairs Symposium's Arthur Goodzeit Book Award for 2013 his Battle for Angola delves still further into the troubled history of this former Portuguese African colony This is a completely fresh work running to almost 600 pages including 32 pages of color photos with the main thrust on events before and after the civil war that followed Lisbon's over hasty departure back to the metropole There are also several sections that detail the role of South African mercenaries in defeating the rebel leader Dr Jonas Savimbi considered by some as the most accomplished guerrilla leader to emerge in Africa in the past century There are many chapters that deal with Pretoria's reaction to the deteriorating political and military situation in Angola the role of the Soviets and mercenaries in the political transition as well as the civil war that followed With the assistance of several notable military authorities he elaborates in considerable detail on South Africa's 23 year Border War from the first guerrilla incursions to the last In this regard he received solid help from the former head of 4 Reconnaissance Regiment Colonel Douw Steyn who details several cross border Recce strikes including the sinking by frogmen of two Soviet ships and a Cuban freighter in an Angolan deepwater port Throughout the author was helped by a variety of notable authorities including the French historian Dr Ren P lissier and the American academic and former naval aviator Dr John Jack Cann With their assistance he covers several ancillary uprisings and invasions including the Herero revolt of the early 20th century the equally troubled Ovambo insurrection as well as the invasion of Angola by the Imperial German Army in the First World War Former deputy head of the South African Army Major General Roland de Vries played a seminal role It was he dubbed South Africa's Rommel by his fellow commanders who successfully nurtured the concept of mobile warfare where in a succession of armored onslaughts thin skinned Ratel Infantry Fighting Vehicles tackled Soviet main battle tanks and thrashed them There is a major section on South African Airborne the Parabats by Brigadier General McGill Alexander one of the architects of that kind of warfare under Third World conditions Finally the role of Cuban Revolutionary Army receives the attention it deserves officially there were almost 50 000 Cuban troops deployed in the Angolan war though subsequent disclosures in Havana suggest that the final total was much higher

Small Navies Dr Deborah Sanders, Dr Ian Speller, Professor Michael Mulqueen, 2014-06-28 Whilst maritime studies tend to reflect the dominance of large navies history shows how relatively small naval forces can have a disproportionately large impact on global events From Confederate commerce raiders in the nineteenth century to Somali pirates today even the most minor of maritime forces can become a key player on a global stage Examining a broad range of examples this volume addresses the roles and activities of small navies in the past and the present at the national regional and international level In particular it focusses on the different ways in which such forces have identified and addressed national and international security challenges and the way in which they interact with other navies and security agencies In addition the collection also investigates the relationship of such navies with non governmental organisations institutions and bodies in pursuit of broader maritime goals be they political financial or environmental Adopting an interdisciplinary approach drawing on the best new research from the fields of international relations security studies strategic studies and maritime history the book examines the diversity of experience amongst different smaller navies and also establishes areas of similarity Divided into two sections part one begins with a number of chapters that are theoretical in nature whilst part two provides case studies that offer a more regional focus including analysis of the challenges facing contemporary navies and historical case studies designed to reveal the experience of small navies over time By adopting an approach that combines historical considerations with analysis of current events the collection offers a unique perspective on the role that small navies have played in wider nautical affairs and their continued impact upon global maritime strategies

Newman, Ariane De Lannoy, 2014-04-22 Twenty years after the end of apartheid a new generation is building a multiracial democracy in South Africa but remains mired in economic inequality and political conflict The death of Nelson Mandela in 2013 arrived just short of the twentieth anniversary of South Africa's first free election reminding the world of the promise he represented as the nation's first Black president Despite significant progress since the early days of this new democracy frustration is growing as inequalities that once divided the races now grow within them as well In After Freedom award winning sociologist Katherine S Newman and South African expert Ariane De Lannoy bring alive the voices of the freedom generation who came of age after the end of apartheid Through the stories of seven ordinary individuals who will inherit the richest and yet most unequal country in Africa Newman and De Lannoy explore how young South Africans whether Black White mixed race or immigrant confront the lingering consequences of racial oppression These intimate portraits illuminate the erosion of old loyalties the eruption of class divides and the heated debate over policies designed to redress the evils of apartheid Even so the freedom generation remains committed to a united South Africa and is struggling to find its way toward that vision

McCoy, 2021-11-16 In a tempestuous narrative that sweeps across five continents and seven centuries this book explains how a succession of catastrophes from the devastating Black Death of 1350 through the coming climate crisis of 2050 has produced a relentless succession of rising empires and fading world orders During the long centuries of Iberian and British imperial rule the quest for new forms of energy led to the development of the colonial sugar plantation as a uniquely profitable kind of commerce In a time when issues of race and social justice have arisen with pressing urgency the book explains how the plantation s extraordinary profitability relied on a production system that literally worked the slaves to death creating an insatiable appetite for new captives that made the African slave trade a central feature of modern capitalism for over four centuries After surveying past centuries roiled by imperial wars national revolutions and the struggle for human rights the closing chapters use those hard won insights to peer through the present and into the future By rendering often opaque environmental science in lucid prose the book explains how climate change and changing world orders will shape the life opportunities for younger generations born at the start of this century during the coming decades that will serve as the signposts of their lives 2030 2050 2070 and beyond Political Handbook of the World 2018-2019 Tom Lansford, 2019-03-19 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2018 2019 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies This comprehensive update will include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years including Elections across Europe Referendum in Ireland Rohingya genocide in Myanmar The Venezuelan dictatorship The renaming of Swaziland to eSwatini Qatar diplomacy changes Historic meeting between the United States and North Korea Establishment of a new governing coalition in Liberia
