Theology at the University of Pretoria - 100 years: (1917-2017) Past, present and future Dirk J.

Meylahn, Sampson S. (Sam) Ndogo, Cornelius J. Niemandt, Jerry Pillay, Corneliu C. Simut, Andries G. van Aarde, Attie S. van

Niekerk, Daniël P. Veldsman, Casparus J. (Cas) Wepener, Tanya van Wyk, 2017-12-01 In this scholarly book a century's theology presented by the Faculty of Theology at the University of Pretoria is celebrated. All authors are academics or research associates of the University of Pretoria. A historical and futuristic overview with perspectives from the past, present and future are examined. The past is not only portrayed by means of societal and scientific contributions and achievements but the authors also reflect on malfunctions, ill behaviour and disappointments of church and theology presented at the University of Pretoria within the South African context over 100 years. The book commences with a chapter in which institutional transformation is discussed as well as the changes that demonstrate the role of the Faculty of Theology within a secular state university. It includes an explanation of the importance of research impact, research productivity and research reputation. Among various discipline indicators, the category Theology and Religion Studies plays a significant role in the measurement of world university rankings of universities. With regard to scientific and encyclopaedic content, the book focuses on the theological disciplines presented in the academic curricula: first the biblical sciences (Old and New Testament Studies), then the historical disciplines (Systematic Theology, Church History and Church Polity) and finally the practical disciplines (Practical Theology, Science of Religion and Missiology). The role of Religion Studies in a newly established Faculty of Theology and Religion not only enhances the diversity of interreligious tolerance and an atmosphere of dialogue but it serves as a platform to interconnect with the fields of Humanities, Social and Natural Sciences and other academic disciplines. In the conclusive part of the book, contributions highlight the role of the centres in the Faculty: Centre for Contextual Ministry and Centre for Sustainable Communities, as well as the continental and international footprints of the two theological journals whose title ownership is attached to the Faculty of Theology of the University of Pretoria, namely HTS Theological Studies and Verbum et Ecclesia. The methodology comprised in all the chapters amounts to a literature and contextual study. Since the book describes the histories of formal academic departments, these texts are of a descriptive, interpretative and critical character. Reference is made in some chapters to exegetical methods like the historical critical methods. The target audience of the book is academic scholars and theologians who specialise in the different fields of Theology, the Humanities and other Social Sciences. The book is also accessible to scholars of other academic disciplines outside these disciplines. The book comprises original research by several authors and is not plagiarised from other scientific publications of this nature. How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro-contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an inter-disciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans. Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations, the work delves into peoples' ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes. Mapping an anti-poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti-substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08 Indigenous knowledge is the comprehensive body of knowledge that locals accumulate from life experience unofficial research and close observation of their surroundings within a particular culture It connects the entirety of nature and the components that sustain life to the survival of every human being Additionally it gives specific community conditions in respect to the environment and offers workable answers to people's problems As a result by preserving indigenous knowledge systems indigenous knowledge may provide value to the community by offering innovative solutions to social environmental and economic issues Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society explores the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society Furthermore it discusses the importance of preserving and sharing indigenous knowledge for community development Covering topics such as epistemic diversity traditional load and indigenous curricula this book is an excellent resource for sociologists policymakers government officials environmentalists educators records managers professionals researchers scholars academicians and more Internationalizing the Communication Curriculum in an Age of Globalization Paaige Turner, Soumia Bardhan, Tracey Quigley Holden, Eddah Mutua, 2019-12-09 Globalization and the resulting internationalization of universities is driving change in teaching learning and what it means to be educated This book provides exemplars of how the Communication discipline and curriculum are responding to the demands of globalization and contributing to the internationalization of higher education Communication as a discipline provides a strong theoretical and methodological framework for exploring the benefits challenges and meanings of globalization The goal of this book therefore is to facilitate internationalization of the communication discipline in an era of globalization Section one discusses the theoretical perspectives of globalism internationalization and the current state of the Communication discipline and curriculum Section two offers a comprehensive understanding of the role ways and impact of internationalizing teaching learning and research in diverse areas of study in Communication including travel programs and initiatives to bring internationalization to the classroom The pieces in this section will include research based articles case studies analytical reviews that exam key questions about the field and themed pieces for dialogue debate on current and future teaching and learning issues related to internationalizing the Communication discipline curriculum Section three provides an extensive sampling of materials and resources for immediate use in internationalization in communication studies sample syllabi activities examples and readings will be included In sum our book is designed to enable communication curriculum and communication courses in other disciplines to
