Lesson Text: Galatians 5:18-6:10
Lesson Title: Holy Living in the Spirit

Introduction

The Christian life is a daily struggle between the flesh and the Spirit. The flesh, which we are by nature, is always and ever causing many problems for the believer. But the Holy Spirit is strength and guidance.

In our lesson text, the Apostle Paul describes the Spirit's work in our lives as the Spirit the flesh and continuously breaks us. Paul has been talking about the importance of love and how it fulfills the Law and about the danger of not having, which results in falling and committing one another as believers.

Where does the believer get the strength to live and another where it is not needed to do that? Where does the believer know which path to take or which master to follow? How does the believer know how to live? The answer is within the Law of the Spirit.

No external law or set of rules can give the strength needed to live the Christian life. No external law can give us a desire to obey or fill us with love. No external law can produce holy living. The Law can provide direction to a person and boundaries for which to live. But it has no power to produce a holy life. Paul wants the Christians to know holy living is possible only through the Spirit of God.

A Choice to Make (Galatians 5:18)

ROMANS

"That if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law."

Every believer in Jesus Christ has the Holy Spirit. At the moment of faith, the Spirit indwells the believer and seals him unto the day of redemption (Ephesians 1:13). It is the Holy Spirit, not the Law, who is our guide, presence, and the One who empowers us to live the Christian life and overcome the flesh.

"That if ye be led of the Spirit" means the believer must make a choice to follow the leadership of the Spirit. Christians are "led of the Spirit." The Spirit takes the initiative to lead, but we must make a choice to follow Him against the pull

Between Dixie and Zion Walker Robins,2020-03-17 Explores the roots of evangelical Christian support for Israel through an examination of the Southern Baptist Convention One week after the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention SBC repeatedly and overwhelmingly voted down resolutions congratulating fellow Southern Baptist Harry Truman on his role in Israel's creation From today's perspective this seems like a shocking result After all Christians particularly the white evangelical Protestants who populate the SBC are now the largest pro Israel constituency in the United States How could conservative evangelicals have been so hesitant in celebrating Israel's birth in 1948 How did they then come to be so supportive Between Dixie and Zion Southern Baptists and Palestine before Israel addresses these issues by exploring how Southern Baptists engaged what was called the Palestine question whether Jews or Arabs would or should control the Holy Land after World War I Walker Robins argues that in the decades leading up to the creation of Israel most Southern Baptists did not directly engage the Palestine question politically Rather they engaged it indirectly through a variety of encounters with the land the peoples and the politics of Palestine Among the instrumental figures featured by Robins are tourists foreign missionaries Arab pastors converts from Judaism biblical interpreters fundamentalist rebels editorialists and of course even a president While all revered Palestine as the Holy Land each approached and encountered the region according to their own priorities Nevertheless Robins shows that Baptists consistently looked at the region through an Orientalist framework broadly associating the Zionist movement with Western civilization modernity and progress over and against the Arabs whom they viewed as uncivilized premodern and backward He argues that such impressions were not idle they suggested that the Zionists were bringing to fruition Baptists long expressed hopes that Israel would regain the prosperity it had held in the biblical era the Holy Land would one day be revived and biblical prophecies preceding the return of Christ would be fulfilled
