Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy Awad Ibrahim, Tamari Kitossa, Malinda S. Smith, Handel Kashope Wright, 2022-02-02 The essays in Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy make visible the submerged stories of Black life in academia They offer fresh historical social and cultural insights into what it means to teach learn research and work while Black In daring to shift from margin to centre the book's contributors confront two overlapping themes First they resist a singular construction of Blackness that masks the nuances and multiplicity of what it means to be and experience the academy as Black people Second they challenge the stubborn durability of anti Black tropes the dehumanization of Blackness persistent deficit ideologies and the tyranny of low expectations that permeate the dominant idea of Blackness in the white colonial imagination Operating at the intersections of discourse and experience contributors reflect on how Blackness shapes academic pathways ignites complicated and often difficult conversations and reimagines Black pasts presents and futures This unique collection contributes to the articulation of more nuanced understandings of the ways in which Blackness is made unmade and remade in the academy and the implications for interrelated dynamics across and within post secondary education Black communities in Canada and global Black diasporas

Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Peggy Keeran, Carrie Forbes, 2018-09-22 In Successful Campus Outreach for Academic Libraries Building Community Through Collaboration Peggy Keeran and Carrie Forbes bring together a variety of ways academic libraries are engaging with their communities through outreach with creativity and the spirit of collaboration as major themes throughout As a compendium of best practices it serves as a resource for academic librarians to discover new programming ideas to learn principles of effective marketing and to help them think strategically and programmatically about outreach activities of all types Topics are presented in four sections

Strategic Vision and Planning Developing and Implementing Successful Programs Community Outreach The Academic Library in the Community Broadening Library Outreach Audiences Practitioners designing outreach programs and activities will benefit from learning about a diverse set of outreach practices from libraries      Occupational Outlook Handbook ,2006 Describes 250 occupations which cover approximately 107 million jobs      Preparing for College and University Teaching Joanna Gilmore,Molly Hatcher,2023-07-03 This book is a guide for designing professional development programs for graduate students The teaching competencies framework presented here can serve as the intended curriculum for such programs The book will also be an excellent resource for evaluating programs and will be an excellent resource for academics who study graduate students This book presents the work of the Graduate Teaching Competencies Consortium to identify organize and clarify the competencies that graduate students need to teach effectively when they join the professoriate To achieve this goal the Consortium developed a framework of 10 teaching competencies organized around three overarching questions What do graduate students need to achieve by the end of their graduate education to be successful teacher scholars What do graduate students need to understand about higher education to have successful careers as educators What do graduate students need to do to be successful teachers during their graduate student careers Although much work has been done to identify the competencies of effective teachers in higher education only a small portion of this work has been conducted with graduate student instructors This is an important area of research given that graduate students are critical in the higher education academic pipeline Nationally graduate students teach between 25% and 50% of courses offered at the undergraduate level Graduate student teaching is also critical because during early teaching experiences teachers establish a teaching style and set of teaching skills which will endure as graduate students enter the professoriate It is important to develop a teaching competency framework that is specific to graduate student instructors as they often have unique needs and roles as teachers For example graduate student instructors are in the unique position of becoming experts in their field concurrent with learning to teach Moreover as many professional development programs for graduate student instructors evolve based upon factors such as available resources and perceived needs of graduate students this framework will be a useful aid for thoughtfully designing strategic evidence based comprehensive professional development opportunities and programs      The Handbook for Nursing Associates and Assistant Practitioners Gillian Rowe,Scott Ellis,Deborah Gee,Kevin Graham,Michelle Henderson,Janette Barnes,Chris Counihan,Ami Jackson,Jade Carter-Bennett,2022-11-17 The essential handbook for trainee nursing associates and anyone undertaking a foundation degree or higher level apprenticeship in healthcare practice This bestselling book will see you through all aspects of your programme from the skills and knowledge you need to get started through to more advanced topics such as leadership and pathophysiology Covering all of the topics you will study in clear straightforward language it builds your confidence and competence as an effective healthcare professional Key features Mapped to the 2018 NMC Standards and other relevant
