Teaching and Learning the Arts in Higher Education with Technology Joyce Hwee Ling Koh, Rebecca Yen Pei Kan, 2021-12-02 This book is an inquiry about the possibilities of using technology to support the education of artists within higher education contexts Even though technology enhanced learning and teaching may seem incongruent with the long established studio based cultures of making and performing it is increasingly becoming a pivotal point to connect artistes to potential audience and markets Amidst the COVID 19 pandemic technology is also the crucial linchpin for educational continuity of student artists This book explores how technology could enhance the education of artists and designers as they continue to create make and add value to life and society through their artistry It draws upon the experiences of the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts NAFA a pioneering arts institution in Singapore with over 80 years of institutional history Through 9 vignettes this book illustrates technology enhanced pedagogical practices that have been implemented in different artistic learning spaces including classroom studio and stage as well as institutional support strategies With a naturalistic stance these chapters seek to illuminate realistic pictures of teaching and learning that are being uncovered by artist educators as they sought to integrate technology within teaching practices using available technologies and within the classes that they are teaching It is hoped that this book will stimulate conversation among artist educators about possible pedagogical models as well as inform higher arts institutions about the contextual strategies needed to support the creation of technology enhanced pedagogical practices

Advancing Research on Teachers' Professional Vision: Implementing novel Technologies, Methods and Theories Christian Kosel, Tina Seidel, Christian Hartmann, Ann-Sophie Grub, 2024-07-25 A classroom full of students can be overwhelming for teachers It is critical that teachers are able to filter and meaningfully interpret the relevant information in this complex scenario Much of this filtering and interpretation occurs through selective visual perception Over the last decade a rapidly growing number of studies in empirical educational research used eye tracking to investigate teachers selective visual perceptual processes in the classroom Theoretically visual attention and perception are often conceptualized as knowledge based noticing coupled with knowledge based reasoning about what is visually perceived Recent eye tracking studies have shown that experienced teachers in particular show improved selective attention of classroom events through faster detection of relevant information and improved monitoring of learning relevant situations Researchers agree that a critical driver of selective attention processes is the professional knowledge declarative procedural and metacognitive of experienced teachers which controls selective perceptual processes in a top down process The findings are significant and provide important insights for research on teacher professionalization Developing Teaching Skills in the Primary School Jane Johnston, John Halocha, Mark Chater, 2007-10-16 Teaching is a complex process which involves the development and utilization of subject knowledge and teaching skills Containing reflective and practical skills this book supports such development focusing specifically on teaching skills considering what they are how they develop and how they differ between age and subject The book contains three sections Planning Doing and Reviewing which demonstrate effective classroom practice It uses examples of practitioners at different stages of their professional development to link theory and practice and includes discussions on contemporary issues in primary education such as Constructivist teaching and learning Thinking skills Creativity Teaching and learning styles Child centred learning The authors provide a critical analysis of the issues practice and problems faced by primary school teachers which is supported by reflective tasks throughout the book Emphasizing the child as a partner in the learning process and highlighting the importance of teaching for child centred learning the book ultimately develops and strengthens the teacher s skills Developing Teaching Skills in the Primary School provides essential guidance and support to trainee beginner and developing primary school teachers Actors' and Performers' Yearbook 2023 ,2022-10-31 This well established and respected directory supports actors in their training and search for work in theatre film TV radio and comedy It is the only directory to provide detailed information for each listing and specific advice on how to approach companies and individuals saving hours of further research From agents and casting directors to producing theatres showreel companies photographers and much more this essential reference book editorially selects only the most relevant and reputable contacts for the industry Covering training and working in theatre film radio TV and comedy it contains invaluable resources such as a casting calendar and articles on a range of topics from your social media profile to what drama schools are looking for to financial and tax issues With the listings updated every year the Actors and Performers Yearbook continues to be the go to guide for help with auditions interviews and securing sustaining work within the industry An invaluable professional tool that anyone working in the industry will benefit from Actors and Performers Yearbook 2023 is fully updated and features a new foreword by Syrus Lowe Resources in Education ,2000-10
