Teaching Bibliography Textual Criticism And Book History:

Teaching Bibliography, Textual Criticism and Book History Ann R Hawkins, 2015-10-06 Offers a variety of approaches to incorporating discussions of book history or print culture into graduate and undergraduate classrooms This work considers the book as a literary historical cultural and aesthetic object These essays are of interest to university teachers incorporating textual studies and research methods into their courses      Textual Scholarship and the Material Book Wim Van

Mierlo, 2007 In the last decades the emphasis in textual scholarship has moved onto creation production process collaboration onto the material manifestations of a work onto multiple rather than single versions onto reception and book history Textual scholarship now includes not only textual editing but any form of scholarship that looks at the materiality of text of writing of reading and of the book The essays in this collection explore many questions about methodology and theory arising from this widening scope of textual scholarship The range of texts discussed from Sanskrit epic via Medieval Latin commentary through English and Scottish Ballads to the plays of Samuel Beckett and the stories of Guimarães Rosa testifies to the vigour of the discipline The range of texts is matched by a range of approach from theoretical discussion of how text happens to analysis of issues of book design and censorship the connections between literary and textual studies exploration of the links between reception and commodification in George Eliot and between information theory and paratext Through this diversity of subject and approach a common theme emerges the need to look further for common ground from which to continue the debate from a comparative perspective      Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson, Steven Robert

Harris, 2009      Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Barbara Heritage, Donna A. C. Sy, 2025-05-15 Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Objects of Study is a richly illustrated volume consisting of 23 methods based chapters discussing innovative and often experimental approaches to hands on teaching with material texts Featuring 47 contributors whose work ranges from digital humanities librarianship curation and conservation to architecture culinary history fine art literary history and the history of science the collection builds on new work in the areas of text technologies and critical bibliography emerging scholarly approaches being embraced in the humanities The book features established experts in bibliography the history of the book manuscript studies and textual editing as well as educators and students who are applying new critical bibliographical methods e g Black bibliography to their pedagogy The result is a dynamic cross disciplinary cross generational exchange modeling inclusive pedagogies with textual artifacts and illuminating how object oriented teaching can harness the insights of diverse branches of practice and learning      Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century      Ambassadors of the Book Raphaële Mouren, 2012-12-19 What competences are needed for heritage librarians and how can they be taught The management of heritage collections requires a unique mix of knowledge and skills including expertise in preservation and conservation heritage policies acquisitions and collection management bibliographic description the materiality of books and other collection objects and the history of libraries Librarians must also understand the need for open access the importance of marketing and the challenges posed by digitization

Shakespeare and Textual Studies Margaret Jane Kidnie, Sonia Massai, 2015-11-12 Shakespeare and Textual Studies gathers contributions from the leading specialists in the fields of manuscript and textual studies book history editing and digital humanities to provide a comprehensive reassessment of how manuscript print and digital practices have shaped the body of works that we now call Shakespeare This cutting edge collection identifies the legacies of previous theories and places special emphasis on the most recent developments in the editing of Shakespeare since the turn to materialism in the late twentieth century Providing a wide ranging overview of current approaches and debates the book explores Shakespeare's poems and plays in light of new evidence engaging scholars editors and book historians in conversations about the recovery of early composition and publication and the ongoing appropriation and transmission of Shakespeare's works through new technologies

Home Ground and Foreign Territory Janice Fiamengo, 2014-04-03 The first multi disciplinary collection of essays to focus exclusively on early Canadian literature with the aim of reassessing the field and proposing new approaches

An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual Studies Craig S. Abbott, William Proctor Williams, 2014-08-01 To a reader of Joyce's Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus's first thoughts is No mother as in the printed version or No mother as in the manuscript The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S Abbott's acclaimed handbook This updated fourth edition outlines the study of texts composition revision physical embodiments process of transmission and manner of reception describes how new technologies such as digital imaging and electronic tagging have changed the way we produce read preserve and research texts discusses why these matters are central to a historical understanding of literature and shows how the insights methods and products of bibliographical and textual studies can be applied to other branches of scholarship

Gender and the Book Trades Elise Watson, Jessica Farrell-Jobst, 2024-12-02 This volume proposes a new and radically inclusive approach to the study of the book by using gender as a tool of analysis While female authors and women in the book trades have long been studied gender itself has yet to be explored as a methodology rather than a subject in book history We argue that putting gender analysis into practice requires thinking inclusively about both the book world and the interactions of its participants from the beginning With twenty five pioneering case studies that stretch from colonial Peru to modern Delhi using a variety of intersectional methodologies including network analysis critical bibliography and queer theory Gender and the Book Trades sets out an innovative method of analysing the printed book Contributors Rebecca Baumann Montserrat Cachero Verónica Calsoni Lima Matthew Chambers Kanupriya Dhingra Nora Epstein Natalia

Women Writers and the Artifacts of Celebrity in the Long Nineteenth Century Maura

Ives, Ann R. Hawkins, 2016-12-05 In 1788 the Catalogue of Five Hundred Celebrated Authors of Great Britain Now Living forecast a form of authorship that rested on biographical revelation and media saturation as well as literary achievement This collection traces the unique experiences of women writers within a celebrity culture that was intimately connected to the expansion of print technology and of visual and material culture in the nineteenth century The contributors examine a wide range of artifacts including prefaces portraits frontispieces birthday books calendars and gossip columns to consider the nature of women s celebrity and the forces that created it How did authors like Jane Austen the Countess of Blessington Louisa May Alcott Alice Meynell and Marie Corelli negotiate the increasing demands for public revelation of the private self How did gender shape the posthumous participation of women writers such as Jane Austen Ellen Wood Mary Elizabeth Braddon and Christina Rossetti in celebrity culture These and other important questions related to the treatment of women in celebrity genres and media and the strategies women writers used to control their public images are taken up in this suggestive exploration of how nineteenth and early twentieth century women writers achieved popular critical and commercial success

The Cambridge Companion to the History of the Book Leslie Howsam, 2014-12-11 Throughout human history the world s knowledge and fruits of the creative imagination have been produced circulated and received through the medium of the material text This Companion provides a wide ranging account of the history of the book and its ways of thinking about works from ancient inscription to contemporary e books discussing thematic chronological and methodological aspects of this interdisciplinary field The first part considers book cultures from local national and global perspectives Part two organized around the dynamic relationship between the material book and the mutable text develops a loosely chronological narrative from early writing through manuscript and early printing to the institution of a mechanized book trade and on to the globalization of publishing and the introduction of the electronic book A third part takes a practical turn discussing methods sources and approaches bibliographical archival and reading experience methodologies as well as pedagogical strategies

how a combination of place based writing and location responsive technologies produce new kinds of literary experiences

Building on the work done in the Ambient Literature Project 2016 2018 this book argues that these encounters constitute new literary forms in which the authored text lies at the heart of an embodied and mediated experience The visual sonic social and historic resources of place become the elements of a live and emergent mise en scene Specific techniques of narration including hallucination memory history place based writing and drama as well as reworking of traditional storytelling forms combine with the work of app and user experience design interaction software authoring and GIS geographical information systems to produce ambient experiences where the user reads a textual and sonic literary space These experiences are temporary ambiguous and unpredictable in their meaning but unlike the theatre the gallery or the cinema they take place in the everyday shared world The book explores the potentiality of a new literary form produced by the exchange between location aware cultural objects writers and readers This book and the work it explores lays the ground for a new poetics of situated writing and reading practices

Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty-First Century Ellen C. Carillo, 2021-08-02 Robert Scholes passed away on December 9 2016 leaving behind an intellectual legacy focused broadly on textuality Scholes's work had a significant impact on a range of fields including literary studies composition and rhetoric education media studies and the digital humanities among others In Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty First Century contemporary scholars explore and extend the continued relevance of Scholes's work for those in English and writing studies In this volume Scholes's scholarship is included alongside original essays providing a resource for those considering everything from the place of the English major in the twenty first century to best practices for helping students navigate misinformation and disinformation Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty First Century not only keeps Scholes's legacy alive but carries it on through a commitment in Scholes's 1998 own words to offer our students the cultural equipment they are going to need when they leave us Contributors Angela Christie Paul T Corrigan Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Doug Hesse Alice S Horning Emily J Isaacs Christopher La Casse Robert Lest n Kelsey McNiff Thomas P Miller Jessica Rivera Mueller Christian Smith Kenny Smith

Introduction to Contemporary Print Culture Simone Murray, 2020-10-11 Introduction to Contemporary Print Culture examines the role of the book in the modern world It considers the book's deeply intertwined relationships with other media through ownership structures copyright and adaptation the constantly shifting roles of authors publishers and readers in the digital ecosystem and the merging of print and digital technologies in contemporary understandings of the book object Divided into three parts the book first introduces students to various theories and methods for understanding print culture demonstrating how the study of the book has grown out of longstanding academic disciplines The second part surveys key sectors of the contemporary book world from independent and alternative publishers to editors booksellers readers and libraries focusing on topical debates In the final part digital technologies take centre stage as eBook regimes and mass digitisation projects are examined for what they reveal about information power and access in the twenty first century This book provides a fascinating and informative introduction for students of all levels in publishing studies book history literature and English media communication and cultural studies cultural sociology librarianship and archival studies and digital humanities

Playing Games in Nineteenth-Century Britain and America Ann R. Hawkins, Erin N. Bistline, Catherine S. Blackwell, Maura Ives, 2021-11-01 A vital part of daily life in the nineteenth century games and play were so familiar and so ubiquitous that their presence over time became almost invisible Technological advances during the century allowed for easier manufacturing and distribution of board games and books about games and the changing economic conditions created a larger market for them as well as more time in which to play them These changing conditions not only made games more profitable but they also increased the influence of games on many facets of culture Playing Games in Nineteenth Century Britain and America focuses on the material and visual culture of both American and British games examining how cultures of play intersect with evolving gender norms economic structures scientific discourses social movements and nationalist sentiments
