

2. Assessment

Planning assessment as part of learning

Evidence of children and young people's progress and achievements will come from day to day learning and through the things they may write, say, make or do.

Assessments should:

- allow all learners opportunity to demonstrate their skills, knowledge and understanding.
- take account of learner readiness and individual needs/circumstances.
- be rich. A rich assessment is one which will:

- promote innovative and pupil-led methods of demonstrating understanding.
- incorporate summative assessment (assessment of learning):

- incorporate formative assessment (assessment for learning):

- match course specifications, key dates and agreed timelines (Senior Phase).
