The GCC and the International Relations of the Gulf Matteo Legrenzi, 2015-07-31 The Gulf Cooperation Council GCC made up of Saudi Arabia Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE is one of the most resilient sub regional organizations in the world and the most successful in the Arab world it has been the forum through which much security cooperation in this volatile sub region has taken place as well as the main representative for the UAE s territorial dispute with Iran over the Abu Musa and tunbs islands the organization aims to enhance defence cooperation between its member states it also has significant potential to foster economic integration and to present an alternative form of leverage over the international oil markets Very little is known however about how the organization really works how decisions are actually taken as opposed to how this process is formally articulated in its charter and what the GCC s real impact on member states the gulf and international relations is Drawing on cutting edge ir theoretical perspectives as well as unique firsthand access to GCC decision makers Matteo Legrenzi explains the mechanisms of Gulf cooperation and its limitations in the context of economic globalization diplomatic regionalization and the rise of Iran Combining historical context primary source investigations and theoretical analysis this is a comprehensive guide to the GCC and an indispensable resource for anyone concerned with the Gulf and the Middle East

Mirages of Reform Steve L. Monroe, 2025-05-15 In Mirages of Reform Steve L Monroe argues that geopolitics and social connections between state and capital underpin the Arab world s uneven trade policies Despite decades of international pressure neoliberal trade policy reform in the Arab world has been varied selective and often ineffective Neoliberal trade policies have not deepened international trade in many of the region s markets This book explains why When the region s regimes have strong support from global powers and strong social connections to the industrial elite they engage in extensive but deceptive trade policy reform Behind an edifice of neoliberal trade policies neopatrimonial forms of protectionism like tax evasion and noncompetitive procurement shield the socially connected from international competition and obstruct actual trade liberalization Industrialists are less trustful of regime promises of neopatrimonial protectionism after reform when they have weak social connections to their regime and their regime has low support from global powers They are more likely to defend existing protectionist policies under these conditions resulting in less trade policy reform Drawing on interviews firm and industry level data and evidence from Jordan to Morocco Mirages of Reform reveals how international and domestic factors interact to shape the Arab world s rugged trade policy terrain Insightful and well researched this book imparts important lessons and warnings about the repercussions of economic reform in the region

The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh, 2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948 2017 It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa The study attributes Africa s laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non tariff measures in global markets The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948 2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade The analyses of cross border trade during 1948 2017 and their implications for Africa s economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers
