The P. Word Renee Rosch Lewis, 2009-12 Andy and Margaret Becker are married baby boomers enjoying their retirement when Margaret discovers a book that refuels her longtime dream of traveling to Provence Now all she has to do is convince a reluctant Andy to embark on a journey with her that will forever change their lives and their marriage Despite the fact that Andy has discussed traveling to Provence for decades he soon finds himself trapped in Margaret's web of adventure After he agrees to rent a house in Provence where he and Margaret can walk to the market have lunch in a cafe and enjoy baguettes accompanied by unpasteurized cheese and lavender honey Andy must adjust to sleeping in a tiny bed changing lanes in traffic circles and eating more bad carbohydrates than he ever has in his life But Andy makes the best of his adventure fully embedding himself in the French culture and even falling in love with the scraggly dog that lives on the property surrounding their wee house After a series of humorous events Andy is unknowingly initiated into a freer way of life as he experiences the people the unhurried atmosphere of French eating and drinking and the fascinating history of Provence

Charlotte Perkins Gilman's "The Yellow Wall-paper" and the History of Its Publication and Reception Julie Bates Dock, 1998-02-27 Since its publication in 1892 Charlotte Perkins Gilman's The Yellow Wall paper has always been recognized as a powerful statement about the victimization of a woman whose neurasthenic condition is completely misdiagnosed mistreated and misunderstood leaving her to face insanity alone as a prisoner in her own bedroom Never before however has the story itself been portrayed as victimized In this first critical edition of Gilman's The Yellow Wall paper accompanied by contemporary reviews and previously unpublished letters Julie Bates Dock examines the various myth frames that have been used to legitimize Gilman's story The editor discusses how modern feminist critics readings and misreadings of the available documents uphold a set of legends that originated with Gilman herself and that promulgate an almost saintly view of the pioneering feminist author The documents made available in the collection enable scholars and students to evaluate firsthand Gilman's claims regarding the story's impact on its first audiences Dock presents an authoritative text of The Yellow Wall paper for the first time since its initial publication Included are a textual commentary full descriptions of all relevant texts lists of editorial emendations and pre copy text substantive variants a complete historical collation that documents all the variants found in important editions after 1892 and a listing of textual sources for more than one hundred reprintings of the story in anthologies and textbooks Other documents in the casebook that illuminate the story's publication and reception histories include Gilman's successive and varying accounts of the story's history her diary and manuscript log entries and letters pertaining to the story W D Howells's correspondence with Gilman and Horace Scudder editor of The Atlantic Monthly and his remarks on the story when he reprinted it in Great American Short Stories and more than two dozen reviews of the story by Gilman's contemporaries Taken together the criticism text documents and annotations constitute a rich and valuable contribution to Gilman scholarship calling into question the feminist literary criticism that has

Batchelor,C. Kaplan,2007-06-15 This book comprises twelve illustrated interdisciplinary essays on gender and material culture across the eighteenth century These essays point to the many ways in which gender mediated and was shaped by the consumption and production of goods and elucidate the complex relationships between material and social practice in the period      Business Digest ,1918      The Current Business Cyclopedia ,1917      Everyday Objects Tara Hamling,Catherine Richardson,2016-12-14 This book is about the objects people owned and how they used them Twenty three specially written essays investigate the type of things that might have been considered everyday objects in the medieval and early modern periods and how they help us to understand the daily lives of those individuals for whom few other types of evidence survive for instance people of lower status and women of all status groups Everyday Objects presents new research by specialists from a range of disciplines to assess what the study of material culture can contribute to our understanding of medieval and early modern societies Extending and developing key debates in the study of the everyday the chapters provide analysis of such things as ceramics illustrated manuscripts pins handbells carved chimneypieces clothing drinking vessels bagpipes paintings shoes religious icons and the built fabric of domestic houses and guild halls These things are examined in relation to central themes of pre modern history for instance gender identity space morality skill value ritual use belief public and private behaviour continental influence materiality emotion technical innovation status competition and social mobility This book offers both a collection of new research by a diverse range of specialists and a source book of current methodological approaches for the study of pre modern material culture The multi disciplinary analysis of these everyday objects by archaeologists art historians literary scholars historians conservators and museum practitioners provides a snapshot of current methodological approaches within the humanities Although analysis of material culture has become an increasingly important aspect of the study of the past previous research in this area has often remained confined to subject specific boundaries This book will therefore be an invaluable resource for researchers and students interested in learning about important new work which demonstrates the potential of material culture study to cut across traditional historiographies and disciplinary boundaries and access the lived experience of individuals in the past      Wallpaper in Interior Decoration Gill Saunders,2002 This work charts the rich and varied history of wallpaper from its modest beginnings in the 16th century through the lavish designs of the 18th century to the computer generated patterns of the late 20th century     In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher s description     The Yellow Wall-Paper and Selected Writings Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2020-02-25 A collection of the groundbreaking feminist writer s most famous works with a thought provoking introduction by bestselling author Kate Bolick A Penguin Vitae Edition Wonderfully sardonic and slyly humorous the writings of landmark American feminist and socialist thinker Charlotte Perkins Gilman were penned in response to her frustrations with the gender based double standard that prevailed in America as the twentieth century began Perhaps best known for her chilling depiction of a woman s mental breakdown in her unforgettable 1892 short story The Yellow Wall Paper Gilman also wrote Herland a wry novel that imagines a peaceful progressive country from which men have been absent for 2 000 years Both are included in The Yellow Wall Paper and Selected Writings along with a selection of Gilman s major short stories and her poems New York Times bestselling author Kate Bolick contributes an illuminating introduction that explores Gilman s fascinating yet complicated life Penguin Classics launches a new hardcover series with five American classics that are relevant and timeless in their power and part of a dynamic and diverse landscape of classic fiction and nonfiction from almost seventy five years of classics publishing Penguin Vitae provides readers with beautifully designed classics that have shaped the course of their lives and welcomes new readers to discover these literary gifts of personal inspiration intellectual engagement and creative originality

Hospital Chaplaincy in the Twenty-first Century Christopher Swift,2009 Issues of faith and spirituality have been resurgent in the UK since the opening of the twenty first century This book charts the impact of shifting attitudes towards spirituality through the experiences of health care chaplains Rooted in a new and challenging interpretation of the chaplain s work in the past the book moves on to describe a current crisis in the nature of spiritual care Using the tools of practical theology to analyze these experiences fundamental problems are identified for chaplains as they work within the culture of evidence based practice As the National Health Service struggles to balance its books in the face of national economic uncertainty chaplains will continue to come under increasing levels of scrutiny Some chaplains have faced the prospect of redundancy or cuts to their budgets while a growing number of NHS Trusts no longer offer chaplaincy to patients out of hours In this context the nature of chaplaincy itself has come into question and rival models of the profession have emerged Is chaplaincy a new and distinct profession within health care based on evidence and available to all Or is it State funded religious activity theoretically open to all but in practice utilized chiefly by the faithful few In responding to these questions the book concludes with a vision of how chaplaincy can both maintain its integrity and be a valued part of twenty first

Huhtamo,2023-08-22 Tracing the cultural material and discursive history of an early manifestation of media culture in the making Beginning in the late eighteenth century huge circular panoramas presented their audiences with resplendent representations that ranged from historic battles to exotic locations Such panoramas were immersive but static There were other panoramas that moved hundreds and probably thousands of them Their history has been largely forgotten In Illusions in Motion Erkki Huhtamo excavates this neglected early manifestation of media culture in the making The moving panorama was a long painting that unscrolled behind a window by means of a mechanical cranking system accompanied by a lecture music and sometimes sound and light effects Showmen exhibited such panoramas in venues that ranged from opera houses to church halls creating a market for mediated realities in both city and country In the first history of this phenomenon Huhtamo analyzes the moving panorama in all its complexity investigating its relationship to other media and its role in the culture of its time In his telling the panorama becomes a window for observing media in operation Huhtamo explores such topics as cultural forms that anticipated the moving panorama theatrical panoramas the diorama the panoramania of the 1850s and the career of Albert Smith the most successful showman of that era competition with magic lantern shows the final flowering of the panorama in the late nineteenth century and the panorama s afterlife as a topos traced through its evocation in literature journalism science philosophy and propaganda     Old-House Journal ,1995-01 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice     The Little Republic Karen Harvey,2012-04-19 Reconstructs the distinctive relationship between the house and masculinity in the eighteenth century adds a missing piece to the history of the home uncovering the hopes and fears men had for their homes and families Reveals how the public identity of men has always depended to a considerable extent upon the roles they performed within doors      Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett,2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett s collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis
