

Trumpet: Range Exercise

Gary Bridgewater

This musical score is a range exercise for trumpet, consisting of eight staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The exercise is divided into two main sections, each containing four staves. The first section (staves 1-4) starts with a measure containing a whole note B-flat, followed by a measure with a whole note D-flat, and then a measure with a whole note F. The second section (staves 5-8) starts with a measure containing a whole note A-flat, followed by a measure with a whole note C, and then a measure with a whole note E-flat. Each section is repeated four times, with the first measure of each repetition containing a whole note B-flat, D-flat, or F, and the second measure containing a whole note D-flat, F, or A-flat. The exercise is designed to help the player develop range and control, with the key signature and note choices suggesting a focus on the lower and middle registers of the instrument.
