Tshwane West Question Papers:

Rescaling municipal governance amidst political competition in Gauteng: Sedibeng's proposed re-demarcation Thembanani Mkhize, 2021-08-27 In 2011 the Gauteng Provincial Government proposed that Sedibeng a Category C district municipality located in the province should be restructured Although the original proposal had anticipated that this would happen after the 2016 local elections the issue remains unresolved due largely to fierce party political opposition and vociferous protests against it on the ground This Occasional Paper examines the dynamics particularities peculiarities and challenges of re demarcating the Gauteng City Region While informed by technical reasons the arguments for and against the merger have tended to gravitate more towards party political rationales for why the re demarcation should or should not go ahead Although these debates raise important merits and demerits for the proposal they are difficult to disentangle from the interests of those whose fortunes would be changed by restructuring In this environment municipal demarcation risks being held hostage by party politics with stakeholders such as political parties using any means at their disposal to have things go their way including by scapegoating the Municipal Demarcation Board MDB The case of Sedibeng presents important lessons about attempts to make post transition local government and mechanisms for determining its configuration work for Gauteng It also highlights the need for strengthening and revising demarcation related legislation How can we make sure that the MDB functions effectively with respect to its primary goals

Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman, 2021-06-01 Building on the work of economic historian Douglass North and Ugandan political scholar Mahmood Mamdani Friedman argues that the difficulties besetting South African democracy are legacies of the past not products of the post 1994 era South Africa s democracy is often seen as a story of bright beginnings gone astray a pattern said to be common to Africa The negotiated settlement of 1994 it is claimed ended racial domination and created the foundation for a prosperous democracy but greedy politicians betrayed the promise of a new society In Prisoners of the Past Steven Friedman astutely argues that this misreads the nature of contemporary South Africa Building on the work of the economic historian Douglass North and the political thinker Mahmood Mamdani Friedman shows that South African democracy s difficulties are legacies of the pre 1994 past The settlement which ushered in majority rule left intact core features of the apartheid economy and society The economy continues to exclude millions from its benefits while racial hierarchies have proved stubborn apartheid is discredited but the values of the pre 1948 colonial era the period of British colonization still dominate Thus South Africa s democracy supports free elections civil liberties and the rule of law but also continues past patterns of exclusion and domination Friedman reasons that this path dependence is not as is often claimed the result of constitutional compromises in 1994 that left domination untouched This bargain was flawed because it brought not too much compromise but too little Compromises extended political citizenship to all but there were no similar bargains on economic and cultural change Using the work of the radical sociologist Harold Wolpe Friedman shows that only negotiations on a new economy and society can free South Africans from the prison of the past Changing Cities Michael Pacione, 2004 Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Mental Health Impact of Violence Jutta Lindert, Haim Y.
