

Tuck Everlasting Essay Questions

Choose one of the questions to answer during our next class. You will have an opportunity now to plan out your ideas a bit so that you write an essay, not a standard journal entry or short answer response.

You may use this paper or your journal to jot down ideas or sketch out an outline, but all of it must remain in the classroom between now and our next meeting.

- 1) In the novel, each of the members of the Tuck family views immortality differently. For Miles and Jesse, it is a blessing that allows them to see the world and make a much larger impact than they could if they were mortal. For Jesse and Miles it is worth the sacrifice of being alone. However, their parents, Mae and Angus feel that immortality took from them everything that made living worthwhile. For this essay, analyze why the family members feel differently about immortality. Is their age a factor or their separate experiences? Who is right and who is wrong?
- 2) You have recently written a story about a time you felt unsafe and were given the option of changing the ending. Think about how TUCK EVERLASTING ends. How did it make you feel? Was the ending a fit to the story? Why or why not? If you could change Natalie Babbitt's ending, what would you change? Why? What feelings would the reader be left with after reading your ending?
- 3) Below are five major themes in TUCK EVERLASTING. Explain what the theme means to you and how you see it carried through the novel. Use at least 3 examples from the text to show how theme comes up in the story.

Ethics and Children's Literature Claudia Mills, 2016-05-13 Exploring the ethical questions posed by in and about children's literature this collection examines the way texts intended for children raise questions of value depict the moral development of their characters and call into attention shared moral presuppositions The essays in Part I look at various past attempts at conveying moral messages to children and interrogate their underlying assumptions What visions of childhood were conveyed by explicit attempts to cultivate specific virtues in children What unstated cultural assumptions were expressed by growing resistance to didacticism How should we prepare children to respond to racism in their books and in their society Part II takes up the ethical orientations of various classic and contemporary texts including prosaic ethics in the Hundred Acre Wood moral discernment in Narnia ethical recognition in the distant worlds traversed by L. Engle and virtuous transgression in recent Anglo American children's literature and in the emerging children's literature of 1960s Taiwan Part III's essays engage in ethical criticism of arguably problematic messages about our relationship to nonhuman animals about war and about prejudice The final section considers how we respond to children's literature with ethically focused essays exploring a range of ways in which child readers and adult authorities react to children's literature Even as children's literature has evolved in opposition to its origins in didactic Sunday school tracts and moralizing fables authors parents librarians and scholars remain sensitive to the values conveyed to children through the texts they choose to share with them
