SRDS Tv & Cable Source ,2003 Why TV is Not Our Fault Eileen R. Meehan, 2005 For more than five decades we ve been told by pundits commentators advertisers scholars and politicians that television is both a window on the world and a mirror reflecting our culture We ve been led to believe that it shows us the world s events through news programs and through entertainment programs reflects the preferences values beliefs and understandings shared by most Americans We re

told that if you don't like what you see on TV don't blame the industry blame yourself This book dispels the myth that the television industry is just giving viewers the programming they want to see and thus we as viewers are responsible for the existence of shows like Fear Factor and yet another Survivor In fact Eileen Meehan explains viewers exert no demand in the market for ratings advertising slots program production or telecasting She also counters the idea that TV programs reflect our culture directly Introducing us to the political economy of television Meehan covers programming corporate strategies advertising the misnomer of competition among networks and organizations that seek more industry accountability She tells us why TV isn't our fault and who's really to blame

The Broadcast Century and Beyond Robert L Hilliard, Michael C Keith, 2012-10-02 The Broadcast Century and Beyond is a popular history of the most influential and innovative industry of the century The story of broadcasting is told in a direct and informal style blending personal insight and authoritative scholarship to fully capture the many facets of this dynamic industry The book vividly depicts the events people programs and companies that made television and radio dominant forms of communication The latest edition includes coverage of all the technologies that have emerged over the past decade and discusses the profound impact they have had on the broadcasting industry in political social and economic spheres Broadcasting as a whole has been completely revolutionized with the advent of YouTube podcasting iphones etc and the authors show how this closing of world wide broadcasting channels affects the industry
