daily basis members of the killing squads guards accompanying the trains to the extermination camps civilian employees of the SS the drivers of gas trucks and the personnel of death factories such as Auschwitz Why did these ordinary people collaborate and willingly become mass murderers In Perpetrators The World of the Holocaust Killers Guenter Lewy tries to answer one of history's most disturbing questions Lewy draws on a wealth of previously untapped sources including letters and diaries of soldiers who served in Russia the recollections of Jewish survivors archival documents and most importantly the trial records of hundreds of Nazi functionaries The result is a ghastly extraordinarily detailed portrait of the Holocaust perpetrators their mindset and the motivations for their actions Combining a rigorous historical analysis with psychological insight the book explores the dynamics of participation in large scale atrocities offering a thought provoking and timely reflection on individual responsibility for collective crimes Lewy concludes that the perpetrators acted out of a variety of motives a sense of duty obedience to authority thirst for career and a blind faith in anti Semitic ideology among others A witness to the 1938 Kristallnacht himself and the son of a concentration camp survivor Lewy has searched for the reasons of the Holocaust out of far more than theoretical interest it is a passionate attempt to illuminate a dismal chapter of his life and of human history that cannot be forgotten
