Ndlela, 2022-11-18 This topical volume illuminates ethical issues brought to the fore by the COVID 19 pandemic Drawing on a broad range of case studies from different regions it provides insights into the multiple and complex ways in which the pandemic has shaped media ethics The chapters employ a wide range of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches to dissect enduring and emerging ethical questions during the pandemic providing lucid accounts of axiological dimensions in pandemic discourses ethics of emotional mood ethical challenges and dilemmas in news reporting propaganda misinformation disinformation and Othering While the case studies in this book are unique the authors have extrapolated common strands from their analysis of ethical issues applicable to any other country or region during the pandemic contributing unique perspectives on how media ethics are circumscribed by global health pandemics The book will appeal to researchers academics and practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism communication media sociology and public health as well as general readers and policymakers who are keen to learn more about how global health crises illuminate critical ethical issues confronting the media

Intellectual History in Contemporary South Africa M. Eze, 2016-04-30 In examining the intellectual history in contemporary South Africa Eze engages with the emergence of ubuntu as one discourse that has become a mirror and aftermath of South Africa s overall historical narrative This book interrogates a triple socio political representation of ubuntu as a displacement narrative for South Africa s colonial consciousness as offering a new national imaginary through its inclusive consciousness in which different competing and often antagonistic memories and histories are accommodated and as offering a historicity in which the past is transformed as a symbol of hope for the present and the future This book offers a model for African intellectual history indignant to polemics but constitutive of creative historicism and healthy humanism

Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa Kurebwa, Jeffrey, Dodo, Obadijah, 2019-06-28 Active political engagement requires the youth of today to begin their journeys now to be leaders of tomorrow Young individuals are instrumental in providing valuable insight into issues locally as well as on a national and international level Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa examines the role of young peoples involvement in governance processes in Africa and demonstrates how they are engaging in active citizenship There is an intrinsic value in upholding their right to participate in decisions that affect their daily lives and their communities and the content within this publication supports this by focusing on topics such as good citizenship youth empowerment democratic awareness political climate and socio economic development It is designed for researchers academics policymakers government officials and professionals whose interests center on the engagement of youth in active citizenship roles

Decolonising Higher Education in the Era of Globalisation and Internationalisation Kehdinga George

Fomunyam, 2019-07-01 Conceived within a context of transdisciplinarity and pluriversalism and in rigorous response to the Eurocentric globalising and nationalising structures of power that undergird and inhabit contemporary praxis in higher education especially in African higher education this collection of essays brings to the on going discourse on decolonisation fresh rich probing and multilayered perspectives that should accelerate the process of decolonisation not only in higher education in Africa but also in the global imaginary A remarkable courageous and potentially revolutionary achievement this book deserves a special place on curricula throughout the world of higher education The National Liberation Struggle in South Africa Gregory F. Houston, 2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume follows the interactions between the United Democratic Front UDF and the African National Congress ANC and Pan Africanist Congress PAC which had adopted more revolutionary strategies after their banning in 1960 over the period 1983-87 Only a few studies of the UDF have aimed to link revolutionary developments in 1980s South Africa with theories of revolutionary strategy and tactics This volume focuses on the relation between revolutionary theory praxis and the formation aims policies and practices of the UDF Houston argues that the formulation of the UDF met certain strategic and tactical requirements of Lenin and Gramsci's theories of revolutionary strategy repositioning the UDF as becoming a Leninist vanguard party with its affiliate membership operating largely underground The volume features 6 detailed maps of the Cape Town area the Republic of South Africa in the 1980s the Johannesburg area the Durban area the Pretoria area and the Northern Transvaal Studying Intimate Matters Barbara Ann Barrett, Christian Groes-Green, 2011 Introduction Intimate studies and ethnographic sensitivity Christian Groes-Green Barbara Ann Barrett Running against the wind studying reproductive norms and behaviour in Islamic Northern Nigeria Chimaraoke O Izugbara Caroline Kabiru Alex C Ezech How to avoid gender bias in gender focused health research methodological reflections and policy suggestions Doris Muhwezi Kakuru Intimate ethnography trust building transgression and sexual cultures among Mozambican youth Christian Groes-Green Sex tourism on Kenya's coast methodological challenges and options Rose Kisia Omondi Let's talk about sex comparing notes from qualitative research on men relationships and sex in South Africa and Rwanda Bjarke Oxlund Intimate matters as a taboo or a burning issue experiences from qualitative data collection in urban Uganda and Tanzania Margrethe Silberschmidt Researching teenage pregnancy in a post-apartheid South African township Nolwazi Mkhwanazi Times and spaces for women's intimate talks reproductive health matters in Mankunda and Kabuyu Southern Zambia Victoria Phiri Dilemmas of justification in the qualitative study of intimate matters examples from Namibia Britt Pinkowski Tersbøl Research ethics and dilemmas of qualitative research a study among secondary school students in Rakai District Uganda Aloysius Lwanga Bukenya Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

Beyond Our Wildest Dreams Ineke van Kessel,2000 The 1980s in South Africa were marked by protest violent confrontation and international sanctions Internally the country saw a bewildering growth of grassroots organizations including trade unions civic associations in the black townships student and other youth organizations church based groups and women s movements many of which operated under the umbrella of the United Democratic Front UDF Beyond Our Wildest Dreams explores the often conflicted relationship between the UDF s large scale resistance to apartheid and its everyday struggles at the local level In hindsight the UDF can be seen as a transitional front preparing the ground for leaders of the liberation movement to return from exile or prison and take over power But the founding fathers of the UDF initially had far more modest ambitions Interviews with Cachalia and other leading personalities in the UDF examine the organization s workings at the national level while stories of ordinary people collected by the author illuminate the grassroots activism so important to the UDF s success Even in South Africa writes Ineke van Kessel who covered the anti apartheid movement as a journalist resistance was not the obvious option for ordinary citizens Van Kessel shows how these people were mobilized into forming a radical social movement that developed a highly flexible and innovative form of resistance that ultimately ended apartheid From publisher s description

Black Consciousness Hlumelo Biko,2021-09-09 If Steve Biko were alive today we would have a country that gladly embraces African culture as the dominant driving force for how society is organised In 1968 two young medical students Steve Biko and Mamphela Ramphele fell in love while dreaming of a life free from oppression and racial discrimination Their love story is also the story of the founding of the Black Consciousness Movement BCM by a group of 15 principled and ambitious students at the University of Natal in Durban in the early 1970s In this deeply personal book Hlumelo Biko who was born of Steve and Mamphela s union movingly recounts his parents love story and how the BCM s message of black self love and self reliance helped to change the course of South African history Based on interviews with some of the BCM s founding members Black Consciousness describes the early years of the movement in vivid detail and sets out its guiding principles around a positive black identity black theology and the practice of Ubuntu through community based programmes In spiritual conversation with his father Hlumelo re examines what it takes to live a Black Consciousness life in today s South Africa He also explains why he believes his father who was brutally murdered by the apartheid police in 1977 would have supported true radical economic transformation if he were alive today

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan,2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Annual Report Council on Higher Education (South Africa),2004

Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam,Alicia L. Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Knowledge Management as a competitive edge in a global economy Maria; Matsilele,2012-07-12 The book focuses on how knowledge is being transformed and managed at companies for competitive advantage and as well as for economic benefits Companies should take it upon themselves to appoint people who are capable of uplifting their knowledge base and enhancing their organization s intellectual property they should appoint people who are in a position to learn fast and adjust to internal as well as to external forces of change Thus training and development should form part and parcel of a company that is prepared to move ahead of its competitors Through the right channels of addressing constant changes that are taking place in the market the company should have a special way of doing business and of possessing special knowledge that will put it ahead of its competitors The book is written in the academic format but can be well understood by readers who are not experts in the field as academic jargon is used to the minimal It is written in simple language which could be understood by readers who have a reasonable mastery of the English language The book has 58 pages 16 606 words it also has 3 figures and 2 tables The glossary is provided at the end of the chapters to assist the readers who may not be familiar with certain concepts

Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman,2018-12-20 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus Global Social Work Bala Nikku,2020-07-15 This edited book Global

Social Work Cutting Edge Issues and Critical Reflections presents global social work expertise practical tools and an iterative and reflective process for developing a global social work pedagogy that advances deep disciplinary learning The authors offer the specifics of a justice based decolonizing global social work education and practice This book will be an asset to faculty communities interested in specializing in global social work The book offers hope that the faculty students and practitioners of social work develop an intercultural international cross border critical approach that further prepares them to meet the global standards of social work education and research and at the same time skillfully act advocate and transform global communities and their role in a globalized world Critical Psychiatry and Mental Health Roy

Moodley,Martha Ocampo,2014-06-13 Critical Psychiatry and Mental Health critically explores the current theory and practice of ethno psychiatry and multicultural mental health practices and policies Through an in depth discussion of the work of Suman Fernando one of the world s leading scholars and researchers in race culture and mental health an international selection of contributors discuss and debate issues affecting mental health and minority ethnic individuals and groups The book offers a new approach to global mental health arguing that the use of outdated and outmoded ways in which psychiatry is researched and practiced is a thing of the past that social justice can only be achieved through a more democratic approach to mental health care and emphasising that the inclusion of cultural and traditional healing methods and practices are vital to meeting diverse needs Split into five parts the book covers Critique of Western Psychiatry and Mental Health Challenges and Opportunities in Mental Health Care Training and Development in Mental Health Practice Transnational Contexts Engaging the work of Suman Fernando Personal Reflections on Suman Fernando s Life and Work Critical Psychiatry and Mental Health is ideal for researchers and practitioners in health and mental health psychiatry counselling and psychotherapy and anyone interested in the intersection of race culture and mental health Gendered

Academic Citizenship Sevil Sümer,2020-09-29 This book proposes the framework of gendered academic citizenship to capture the multidimensional and complex dynamics of power relations and everyday practices in the contemporary context of academic capitalism The book proposes an innovative definition of academic citizenship as involving three key components membership recognition and belonging Based on new empirical data it identifies four ideal types of academic citizenship full limited transitional citizenship and non citizenship The different chapters of the book provide comprehensive reviews of the relevant research literature and offer original insights into the patterns of gender inequalities and practices of gendered academic citizenship across and within different national contexts The book concludes by setting a comprehensive research agenda for the future This book will be of interest to academic researchers and students at all levels in the disciplines of sociology gender studies higher education political science and cultural anthropology Prophecies and Protests Henk van den Heuvel,Mzamo Mangaliso,Lisa van de Bunt,2006 What can managers around the globe learn from the indigenous African term Ubuntu humane ness For the first time ever African management advocates interpretative scholars and academic skeptics are brought together in a unique book displaying the richness of the debate on Afrocentric management vision This debate is characterized by polarization cultural protest emancipatory aspiration mystification and opportunism Prophecies and Protests offers a broad spectrum of remarkably diverse views from different backgrounds and could be seen as an important step to foster the dialogue between protagonists and critics between practitioners and academics Especially today the central theme of the book is relevant in an era of worldwide cultural diffusion and a longing for authenticity and romanticized histories In the Event Lotte Meinert, Bruce Kapferer, 2015-05-01 Events are generative moments in at least three senses events are created by and condense larger scale social structures as moments they spark and give rise to new social processes in themselves events may also serve to analyze social situations and relationships Based on ethnographic studies from around the world varying from rituals and meetings over protests and conflicts to natural disasters and management this volume analyzes generative moments through events that hold the key to understanding larger social situations These events including the Ashura ritual in Bahrain social cleavages in South Africa a Buddhist cave in Nepal drought in Burkina Faso an earthquake in Pakistan the cartoon crisis in Denmark corporate management at Bang Olufsen protest meetings in Europe and flooding and urban citizenship in Mozambique are not simply destructive disasters crises and conflicts but also generative and constitutive of the social
