Paraprofessional

4/1/20

Anna Varner
Special Needs Educator
The Voice Compass Charter School
2727 White Lane
Scranton, PA 18562

Dear Ms. Varner,

As a paraprofessional with 3+ years of experience, I'm excited to apply for your paraprofessional position at The Voice Compass Charter School. My friend Clara Simpson—your retiring paraprofessional—says the experience of working at your school was one of the most rewarding of her life.

Clara and your job posting (found on Indeed) say you're seeking a paraprofessional with special needs experience with good child advocate and listening skills. You also need someone who can develop and source Montessori-based materials. I believe I'm a fit based on:

- Special needs experience. Guided 31 special needs students during school time activities in class and one-on-one situations for 3 years.
- Child advocate and active listening. Used these skills to set goals that raised child performance scores by an average of 21% in 18 months.
- Developing and sourcing materials. Developed, sourced, and implemented 122 Montessori-based age-appropriate activities.

Additional skills and job requirements in your online listing are covered by achievements in my resume. I'm so excited about the opportunity to work for The Voice Compass School. I particularly love your focus on child-led learning. Could we set up a time to chat sometime this week about how I can make your work life easier?

Kind regards,

Kay Reese
