Literary Theory and the Claims of History Satya P. Mohanty, 2018-07-05 At the core of postmodern thought especially in literary theory is the belief that such ideals as truth reason and objectivity are social constructs that have no universal or trans historical validity In exploring this constructivist view Satya P Mohanty examines its underlying epistemological claims and their social and political implications His book points the way toward a critical alternative to the epistemological and cultural relativisms Mohanty grounds his critique in readings of some of the major figures of postmodernism including Paul de Man Louis Althusser Fredric Jameson and Jacques Derrida and analyzes the views of Mikhail Bakhtin C S Peirce Hilary Putnam and Richard Rorty particularly their notions of language and referentiality Mohanty defends a post positivist realist conception of objectivity as a legitimate ideal of all inquiry He outlines a realist theory of social identity and multicultural politics which sees radical moral universalism and cultural diversity as complementary not competing ideals
