

Act III

1. As this act opens, what accusations does Giles Corey make?

- "Thomas Putnam is reaching out for land!" – accuses Thomas Putnam wants Giles Corey's land and has therefore accused Giles Corey's wife of witchcraft.

2. What news do we learn about Rebecca Nurse?

- She has been condemned (found guilty's final sentencing).

3. When John Proctor arrives at court with Mary Warren, what does Reverend Parris accuse him of?

- Parris accuses Proctor of trying to undermine or overturn the court. "They've come to overturn the court, sir!" Parris wants to discredit Proctor.

4. What two pieces of evidence are brought out against Proctor in regard to his Christian nature?

- He doesn't go to church every Sunday.
- He has plowed his fields on Sunday in spite of town.

5. What news does Danforth tell John Proctor about Elizabeth? What deal does he try to make with him?

- The news is that Elizabeth is pregnant.
- The deal Danforth wants to make: Danforth wants Proctor to drop his charge that the girls making charges are pretending and not telling the truth – Danforth says says that Elizabeth will be spared for a year if she is pregnant.
 - Proctor doesn't accept this deal because he wants to definitely save his wife.
 - Proctor also wants to watch out for the other people who have been charged of witchcraft.

6. What is going to happen to the 19 people who signed the testament stating a good opinion of Elizabeth, Mary Corey, and Rebecca Nurse?

- They are to be arrested for questioning. Danforth says "that a person is sworn with this court or he must be accused against it"

7. Discuss "Do that which is good, and no harm shall come to them."

- Proctor says this to comfort Mary Warren, but this advice will not hold up in this court, which does not recognize any evidence against the court's decisions. Basically, if someone testifies against the court, he or she is punished.
