Programming Standards should be part of every school district's repertoire of standards to ensure that the learning needs of advanced students are being met. The new edition of this popular book helps schools understand the updates to the standards which have a renewed emphasis on equity and inclusion. The six standards focus on student outcomes in learning and development, assessment, curriculum planning and instruction, learning environments, programming and professional learning, updated from professional development used in the 2010 version. This book details these standards and provides suggestions for implementing each one. It also includes sample assessments of student products and performances which will assist schools in developing program and service evaluation benchmarks. This book is a must have for school leaders and gifted education professionals who want to offer the most effective services for gifted and advanced students. It is a service publication of the National Association for Gifted Children, Washington, DC. This designation indicates that this book has been jointly developed with NAGC and that this book passes the highest standards of scholarship, research and practice.

Ready-To-Use Writing Proficiency Lessons and Activities Carol H. Behrman, 2003-12-29. An experienced teacher and author, Carol Behrman helps students develop the sound foundation they need to become proficient writers throughout their lives. Included are a variety of easy-to-use reproducible activity sheets to provide review and application of basic language skills as well as extensive practice in producing the types of writing called for in standardized tests. The steps of the writing process are emphasized throughout. Each set of activities is accompanied by detailed lesson plans and suggestions to the teacher for presenting and implementing the skills and concepts being addressed. Each section is followed by a practice test focusing on the concepts and skills covered in the section, plus answer keys and scoring guides with writing samples.
