Reading Comprehension Passage

Peter Pan

Once upon a time, in a faraway place called Neverland, there lived a boy named Peter Pan. Peter was a very special boy because he never grew up. He had the ability to fly and never had to worry about getting older like the rest of us. Peter lived with a group of boys called the Lost Boys, who also never grew up. They had lots of adventures together in Neverland.

One day, while Peter and the Lost Boys were out exploring, they came across a girl named Wendy and her brothers, John and Michael. Wendy loved to hear stories about Peter Pan and his adventures, so she decided to join them in Neverland. Peter was happy to have Wendy and her brothers as new friends.

In Neverland, there were many magical things to see and do. They could swim with the mermaids in the lagoon, have tea with the Indians, and even fight pirates led by the evil Captain Hook. Captain Hook was Peter's greatest enemy. He had a hook instead of a hand and was always trying to capture Peter and his friends. But Peter was too clever for Captain Hook and always managed to escape.

Peter and Wendy became very close friends. Peter taught Wendy how to fly, and they would spend hours soaring through the sky together. They also had many exciting adventures with the Lost Boys. But eventually, Wendy and her brothers had to go back home to their parents.

Peter and Wendy said goodbye, but they promised to never forget each other. Peter knew that he would always have a special place in Wendy's heart. And even though they couldn't see each other anymore, they would always be friends. Peter Pan would continue to have amazing adventures in Neverland, never growing up and always staying young at heart.
