Contino, Literature and philosophy are closely intertwined in this autobiographical and symphonic novel where they are reviewed in all eras of the author's life In it is described a descending parabola in which it appears a world once happy and serene that slowly sank into darkness and oblivion according to the classical scheme of the decline of the West as described by some authors who have been of inspiration to its author Heidegger Schmitt J nger and Spengler never mentioned expressly but invisible presences and inexorable judges of the times and the present things and those to come It as a collection of real experiences and for which the author was inspired by the style of British writers Irvine Welsh David King and David Lodge with a touch of Forsythe always lived by the author in first person also wants to be a kind of manual intended not as a collection of practical advice because there are many other manuals in this regard but as a lesson based on past things as a warning and teaching for future things as Herodotus wanted in his Histories As it is written in the Gospels Repent because the time is at hand The time in fact is at hand
