Drawing on a corpus of 58 hours of video and audio recordings in English as a Foreign Language classrooms in Germany, the book provides a micro-analytical perspective of foreign language classroom management. It contributes to the body of current research by focusing on how foreign language teachers respond to pupils' classroom norm violations using interrogative constructions, i.e. interrogative reproaches. Through a conversational analytic investigation of these social actions, the paper provides valuable insights into the details of the in situ production of classroom management strategies and their underlying interactional mechanisms. Solar Energy Update, 1979
