This book investigates parental engagement in the transition to school in China and Australia which were taken as representatives of Eastern and Western cultures respectively. A positive transition to school is important for children's learning and wellbeing and parents play a critical role in it. The author therefore compares Chinese and Australian parents' perceptions of and engagement in the transition to school and the factors influencing it. By modifying the parental engagement scale and re-constructing the bioecological model of parental engagement in transition to school in the contexts of China and Australia, the book offers both instrumental and theoretical contributions in the field. The author further argues that parents are facing challenges and tensions brought on by both global trends and local contexts which counters people's stereotypes of Chinese and Australian parents. The book will be of interest to scholars and students studying parental engagement, transition to school and international comparative studies.

Families with Adolescents Stephen M. Gavazzi, Ji-Young Lim, 2023-10-06. The second edition of this book offers an expanded and updated blueprint for more consistently improved practice emphasizing family process and structure instead of only individual developmental stages. Its chapters deftly summarize the recent knowledge base about families with adolescents and explain how to apply these results across mental health and social services disciplines. The new edition clearly illustrates family concerns and theoretical perspectives through real world vignettes and cogent use of family assessment measures. Chapters offer a broad understanding of how diversity in all its forms including race, ethnicity, culture, religion, and sexual orientation has created a much more nuanced understanding of how families with adolescents are able to function within their environment. Both major challenges to families and communities form the backdrop of the second edition's focus on forecasting in which the theoretical, empirical, and intervention literatures necessarily move in service to the health and well-being of families with adolescents. Featured topics include: Central concepts of family development, family systems, ecological attachment, and social learning theories in relation to families with adolescents; Influence of the family on adolescent problem behavior, mental health concerns, substance use issues, educational attainment, and social competence outcomes; Selected studies on parenting behaviors, conflict resolution, and other major aspects of families with adolescents; Application topics in family-based intervention and prevention programs; Integrating theory, research, and applications to create a triple threat model; Diversity issues surrounding race, ethnicity, culture, religion, and sexual orientation. Families with Adolescents, Second Edition is an essential resource for researchers, professors, and graduate and advanced undergraduate students as well as professionals and other mental health clinicians, practitioners, and therapists in clinical child and developmental psychology, family studies, human development, sociology, social work, education, and all allied disciplines.

Tesauro trilingüe del CNUAH (Hábitat) sobre asentamientos humanos United Nations Centre for Human Settlements, 1986 A Compendium of Information on Selected Low-cost Building Materials United Nations Centre for Human Settlements, 1988 Violence Against Children Luísa Fernanda Habigzang, Alex Sandro Gomes Pessoa, Silvia Renata Lordello, 2025-07-30 This book shows how the Bioecological Theory of Human Development BTHD can be applied to the study of violence against children Originally developed by Urie Bronfenbrenner to understand human development in general BTHD offers a powerful framework to carry out a systemic analysis of the multiple levels of risk and protective factors associated with violence against children and provides the tools to develop interventions that go beyond the focus on the individual addressing wider contextual factors The chapters of this book present various typologies of violence that can manifest in family school community institutional and structural contexts viewed through the lens of the Bioecological Theory of Human Development The key concepts of Person Process Context and Time serve as the foundation for a critical analysis of the factors that render children vulnerable to experiences of violence The chapters also aim to showcase research and interventions developed by psychologists who have dedicated their work to studying violence against children in a variety of different contexts Violence Against Children Contributions of the Bioecological Theory of Human Development to Research and Intervention will be of interest to researchers in fields such as developmental psychology education and social work who are interested in understanding violence from a systemic theoretical perspective culturally situated within various realities It will also be a useful resource for professionals working with children victim of violence such as social workers teachers and mental health practitioners empowering them to engage in ethically and politically committed actions that drive the necessary social transformations for effectively combating violence against children worldwide regardless of gender race ethnicity social class religion or citizenship status The original manuscript of this book was written in Portuguese and translated into English with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content

Ecological Engagement Silvia Helena Koller, Simone dos Santos Paludo, Normanda Araujo de Moraes, 2019-11-04

This book presents the method developed by Dr Silvia Helena Koller and her students and collaborators to apply Urie Bronfenbrenner's Bioecological Theory of Human Development to empirical studies with children and adolescents Although Bronfenbrenner's theory in different stages of development has been widely cited by several researchers surprisingly little has been written about the theory itself its evolution or about the methods that should be used to test it This book fills this gap by presenting both an overview of Bronfenbrenner's theory and a method to apply it to empirical research the Ecological Engagement method The book also shows how this method can be applied in practice by bringing together a series of research reports of studies carried out in different regions of Brazil and in Angola that used the Ecological Engagement method to study children and adolescent development in different contexts such as street situation sexual exploitation institutional reception family reintegration school and emergency and disasters among others Ecological Engagement Urie Bronfenbrenner's Method to Study Human Development will be a valuable tool for psychologists and other social scientists interested in child and adolescent development looking for a solid and innovative methodology that allows researchers to directly interact with their research subjects in their own social contexts in order to fully understand their problems and issues The methodology of Ecological Engagement that is explained and richly empirically illustrated in this book is a singularly significant extension of Urie Bronfenbrenner's bioecological model Indeed in my view it is a brilliant empirical instantiation of the PPCT component of the model Ecological Engagement methodology is the scientific means through which Urie's legacy can be furthered Excerpt from the Foreword to the International Edition by Dr Richard M Lerner director of the Institute for Applied Research in Youth Development Tufts University International Symposium on World Ecological Design Fangtian Ying, L.C. Jain, Ran Wan, Qun Wu, 2024-04-15 With the world facing increasingly serious global climate change and resource scarcity issues ecology and the environment have received much attention in recent years As a major factor in human activity design plays an important part in protecting the environment as does the role of digital technology in finding solutions to the pressing problems faced in this regard This book presents the proceedings of ISWED2023 the International Symposium on World Ecological Design held on 17 December 2023 in Guangzhou China Sponsored by the World Eco Design Conference a UN Consultative NGO the conference provides a platform for professionals and researchers from industry and academia to present and discuss recent advances in the field of ecological design This year the conference focused on the four topics of digital technology and health digital technology and transportation digital technology and energy and digital technology and the environment A total of 518 submissions on these topics were received for the conference of which 125 were accepted for presentation and publication here Providing a current overview of research and innovation in ecological design around the world the book will be of interest to all those working in the fields of ecological design and digital technology integration The Combat Position Christopher Brennan, 2011 Firefighting is combat and should be viewed as a warrior s calling Firefighters put themselves in harm s way to protect others a selflessness rooted in the same noble drive as the military warriors who defend our nation This book about combat is meant to be a guide for those who seek to follow a warrior s path the path of the fire service warrior Today s firefighter must be a warrior who will unflinchingly put his very life in harm s way to accomplish a mission but who is also fully informed about the path being chosen Embracing the philosophy of the fire service warrior and striving for the ready position the synthesis of physical and mental readiness that allows for optimum fireground performance can reduce firefighter injuries and fatalities The Combat Position Achieving Firefighter Readiness will be an invaluable tool for firefighters company officers chief officers and instructors The Economic and Technical Viability of Various Scales of Building Materials Production , 1989 Police and the Use of Force Vance McLaughlin, 1992 This work examines all levels of lethal and non lethal force available to the police While injury to citizens can result the failure to use force can cause or contribute to the injury or death of the police officer The author demonstrates that the police seldom use force but that departments must establish control over its use and ensure that force is applied effectively and appropriately The author also examines issues and variables involved in the use of force such as alcohol or drug use by the subject level of resistance encountered weapons used the interaction of different cultures local politics and federal and state law Each department in addition has its own operating procedure that further guide or restrict the use of force The author also considers tactical issues such as the individual officer s abilities and the technology of available non lethal weapons The author examines all use of force incidents in the Savannah Police in detail The Savannah program for training officers in the use of force and the reporting procedures for use of force incidents are described Research methods are presented for the gathering of use of force data The locations of violent crime and the use of force by the police are correlated use of force is more likely in parts of the city with a high violent crime rate Anecdotal evidence is presented using the officer s and the citizen s own words to give a clearer picture of what actually occurred The officer s assignment is examined off duty incidents are also examined Race gender and age of both officer and subject are considered This book is a must for all police departments use of force instructors attorneys involved in use of force cases and students of police studies Introducing Bronfenbrenner Nóirín Hayes, Leah O'Toole, Ann Marie Halpenny, 2022-11-23 The influence of Urie Bronfenbrenner s model of development has been extensive in different areas of developmental science and education and it continues to inform contemporary research and practice in many fields including early childhood education This book presents a comprehensive introduction to Bronfenbrenner s model of development in reference to early childhood education It draws on practice based research to identify and animate key elements of the model impacting on early educational pedagogy and practice This new and revised second edition identifies and explores the key elements of Bronfenbrenner s model by referring to contemporary understandings of how children learn It also includes a new chapter which considers repositioning early childhood education settings as interactive relational spaces and provides a broader focus on the concept of transitional experiences in children s daily lives Along with new content on leadership and associated roles and practices in early childhood education this book illustrates how Bronfenbrenner s model can help bring quality to early learning environments and show how it can be incorporated into daily work with young children through vignettes case studies and examples of good practice Introducing Bronfenbrenner serves as an ideal read for professionals around the world working with children in early childhood settings and students training to become early childhood professionals at degree level on undergraduate programmes as part of vocational training or as part of continuous professional development
