Ppe Paper March 2015 Foundation

Shane Moran

Ppe Paper March 2015 Foundation:

Mass Intellectuality and Democratic Leadership in Higher Education Joss Winn, Richard Hall, 2017-08-24 Higher education in the UK is in crisis The idea of the public university is under assault and both the future of the sector and its relationship to society are being gambled Higher education is increasingly unaffordable its historic institutions are becoming untenable and their purpose is resolutely instrumental What and who have led us to this crisis What are the alternatives To whom do we look for leadership in revealing those alternatives This book critically analyses intellectual leadership in the university exploring ongoing efforts from around the world to create alternative models for organizing higher education and the production of knowledge Its authors offer their experience and views from inside and beyond the structures of mainstream higher education in order to reflect on efforts to create alternatives In the process the volume asks is it possible to reimagine the university democratically and cooperatively If so what are the implications for leadership not just within the university but also in terms of higher education s relationship to society The authors argue that mass higher education is at the point where it no longer reflects the needs capacities and longterm interests of global society An alternative role and purpose is required based upon mass intellectuality or the real possibility of democracy in learning and the production of knowledge

Black Climates Selina Nwulu, 2025-08-28 To want to save the planet a person has to have a sense of belonging in it What would a saved planet look like for a Black collective This book is validating and monumental Courttia Newland Sensitive powerful and necessary Joycelyn Longdon Globally Black people are among the most affected by the climate crisis despite contributing very little to it For a long time the crisis was portrayed as yet another injustice for Black people to care about on top of the day to day oppression they face In Black Climates Selina Nwulu reframes the crisis to encompass our disconnection from each other and the world around us She argues that the root of climate change lies in historical colonial violence and ongoing exploitation making it inherently racist Nwulu former Young People s Laureate for London uses her poetic and skilful voice to directly address Black British readers who have been previously ignored in mainstream environmental conversations She includes interviews with a wide range of creatives and campaigners to explore a variety of subjects including air pollution prison ecology disability justice migration food nature community care and radical imagination This is an essential and empowering read for anyone who wants to fully understand the connections between Blackness and the climate crisis providing the tools to envisage more equitable futures

Philosophy, Politics, and Austrian Economics Daniel J. D'Amico, Adam G. Martin, 2020-10-29 Philosophy Politics and Economics as an interdisciplinary endeavour has surged in popularity in recent years Work in this field usually draws on standard microeconomics to grapple with questions from political philosophy But what might Austrian economics which provides an alternative approach have to offer to this endeavour
