provides a general introduction to and description of North America's major drug of abuse alcohol. Multidisciplinary in approach, the Manual addresses itself to the variety of methods. The reader is given observable behavioural and here and now techniques for treatment as well as answers to such fundamental questions as: What effects does alcohol have on the individual? How do we treat the alcoholic? How successful are we in our efforts? The Manual was written as a guide for frontline workers, those who need practical answers to questions that are beyond the scope of the alcohol clinic pamphlet but are too general for the highly technical or specialized reference work. It should appeal to counselors, therapists, educators, physicians, nurses, law enforcement officers, administrators and social workers. It will also be of interest to lay readers interested in the field of alcoholism and its treatment.

Treatment and Prevention of Alcohol Problems, 2012-12-02. Personality, Psychopathology and Psychotherapy. A Series of Monographs, Texts and Treatises. Treatment and Prevention of Alcohol Problems. A Resource Manual focuses on the application of information gained through clinical experience and research in the treatment and prevention of alcohol problems. The selection first offers information on an overview of treatment and prevention of alcohol problems, beginning treatment for alcohol problems and assessment of multiple conditions in persons with alcohol problems. Discussions focus on multiple condition concepts and measures, therapeutic relationship, treatment contacts, dealing with associated problems and special populations, early intervention and prevention and treatment techniques. The text then elaborates on the medical aspects of alcoholism, behavioral treatment of alcohol problems and building self confidence, self efficacy and self control. The publication takes a look at imagery and logotherapeutic techniques in psychotherapy and self help groups and other group procedures for treating alcohol problems, including historical development of group procedures, logotherapy and treatment for alcoholism and imagery methods and treatment for alcoholism. The manuscript also examines the prevention of alcohol problems and the theory and methods for secondary prevention of alcohol problems. The selection is a dependable source of data for researchers interested in the treatment and prevention of alcohol problems. A resource manual for the treatment and prevention of alcohol problems. The contributors represent the major innovators in the field. Covered in detail are: initiating treatment, specific treatment techniques associated with problems and special populations, early intervention and prevention.
