“Poverty is the deprivation of opportunity” - Amartya Sen. Poverty is one of the most leading problems or issue our country and even the world at large is currently facing. It is also the main reason why many, especially people who are drawn by poverty, lost many opportunities. What if poverty will be permanently erased from our country?, Now Imagine a country that is progressive and issues like poverty is gone, What would it look like? But look at our country right now, How do you feel?

This translates to around 19.99 Million Filipinos who lived on the poverty line. This data serves as a testament to people that we also need to help them. We also need to remember what Jose Rizal, our National Hero once said, “Ang Kabataan ang Pag-asa ng Bayan”. But how can our country progress if most of the children of the future are drowning in the harshness of poverty? We can help, It can be in simply giving food, water, clothes, and shelter for those people. We can also partake in programs implemented by the Government Agencies or by Organizations. We really shouldn’t turn a blind eye to this because If we do, all of us will suffer in the mere future. If we don’t make an action right now, then when?

On top of everything, Poverty is still present even up to this time. More than a million filipinos cannot fulfill or get access to the basic necessities for them to live and survive. Partnering with Government Agencies or Organizations might put a smile to people who are in the underserved sectors, the poor, the hunger, the thirsty, the unprivileged, the community where poverty hit them hard. We can do something about it, you don’t need to have a big pocket to help, it is by
