the charges of comparing her publicly to Jezebel and Herodias were founded on fact Because his eloquence had stirred the populace to reform and he had the support of many warm friends he thought himself like Savonarola in later days strong enough to attack her and the shining of his light in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation was extinguished for ever Was he right or wrong We answer the question according to our respective temperaments Yet whatever be our judgment we know that the world does after all respect high ideals and unconsciously is raised by them though it may seem to go on its own way and prefer to join in the censure upon the outspoken tongue      Commentary on the Old Testament ... ,1907
