Decolonizing Translation Kathryn

Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Two Studies on Ethnic Group Relations in Africa Unesco, Fatoumata Agnès Diarra, Yash P. Ghai, 1974 African Realities Josep Martí, 2014-10-02 African Realities Body Culture and Social Tensions is the result of research in anthropology work carried out in different African countries mainly in Equatorial Guinea but also in Senegal Cabo Verde Benin and Ethiopia All the different chapters of this volume address a diversity of subjects related to relevant issues such as gender age social class ethnicity and coloniality which are indispensable for understanding current African realities Furthermore all of these chapters investigate the importance people place on the body and more concretely the manner in which these people present it to others as a common denominator After a brief theoretical introduction about the key concept of the book the social presentation of the body the contributors analyse the results of their own fieldwork taking as a starting point the central role that the body plays in the relationship between the individual and society As is clearly shown in this book the social presentation of the body matters From a general and structural point of view it matters because of its great significance within social logics but it also matters because of its relevant role in situational dynamics of social interaction and because of its close relationship with the emotional registers of individuals If the issue related to the social presentation of the body has an undoubted interest for the academic milieu it is also true that it has great social relevance and constitutes an undeniable political concern The policies related to the social presentation of the body serve to mark justify maintain or even build hierarchical relationships of social order at the level of class gender ethnicity or age Throughout the book and from the African studies perspective different views are offered concerning how the body being not only medium of expression but at the same time a site of experience and construction of the self appears in the centre of social tensions and is an object of strategy control or resistance

Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies Babacar M'Baye, Besi Brillian Muhonja, 2019-07-10 Drawing from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies and development studies among others Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies demonstrates the urgency and necessity of new research in gender and queer studies in and on Senegalese societies By focusing on subjects that have thus far been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive centering within Senegalese studies themes and elements of alternative nonbinary variant and nonheteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices Contributors demonstrate that nationalist and anticolonial discourses propelled by deep and lingering socioeconomic inequalities have led in postcolonial Senegal to vitriolic scapegoating of individuals and communities with variant sexual and gender identities The chapters in this volume look inward to the voices and experiences of the Senegalese people to challenge nationalist representations of advocacy for the liberation of gender and sexual minorities in Senegal as a function of a Western neocolonialist agenda

Women At A Crossroads M. Lewis Renaud, 2013-10-11 HIV ravaged the African continent faster and earlier than any other in the world spreading primarily through unprotected heterosexual sex Kaolack Senegal is a town where travellers and prostitutes converge and HIV transmission rates have soared especially among the prostitutes Going beyond empirical analysis of risk behaviour data Women at the Crossroads tells the stories of these women in their own words The women portrayed keep their profession a secret from their families and friends but abide by Senegalese law which states that prostitution is legal for those who register with the police and undergo bi monthly health examinations By observing one clinic s successful AIDS education campaign anthropologist Michelle Renaud demonstrates that information presented in a culturally appropriate manner can in fact achieve the difficult goal of behaviour change Although these women claim to be trapped by the social and political forces that have led them to enter prostitution Renaud argues that they have taken control of their destinies in an inspiring fashion
