The Complete Rougon-Macquart Series (All 20 Books in One Edition) Émile Zola, 2023-11-25

Émile Zola's The Complete Rougon-Macquart Series is a monumental collection that intricately weaves together twenty novels offering a panoramic view of French society during the Second Empire. Through a naturalistic lens, Zola explores the interplay of heredity, environment, and social conditions, crafting vivid characters whose fates are determined by their biological and societal contexts. This comprehensive edition allows readers to appreciate the interconnected narratives of the Rougon-Macquart family, enriched by Zola's meticulous attention to detail and groundbreaking narrative techniques that reflect the realities of life in 19th-century France. Zola, a pivotal figure in the literary movement of naturalism, was profoundly influenced by the social upheavals of his time, including industrialization and class struggles. His rigorous research and personal experiences in the working-class neighborhoods of Paris provided the impetus for the series, with each novel serving as both a dramatic portrayal of individual lives and a critique of broader societal issues. Zola's dedication to portraying the unvarnished truths of human life underpins the entire series, making it not only a work of fiction but also a profound social commentary. For readers seeking a deep understanding of human nature and society, The Complete Rougon-Macquart Series is an essential exploration of the complexities of the human condition. Zola's rich tapestry of stories resonates with both historical significance and timeless relevance, making it an invaluable addition to any literary collection.

Posthumorism Frances McDonald, 2022-01-27

Examining the multiple non-humorous meanings of laughter, this book explores a unique strain of laughter in modernism that is without humor, without humans, and without humanism. Providing a bold new theory of modernism's affects, Posthumorism chronicles the scattered emergence of a particular strain of humorless laughter in twentieth-century literature, film, and philosophy. From William James's trippy experiments with laughing gas to the wide-open suicide shriek of Major Kong in Stanley Kubrick's Dr. Strangelove, modernity is strewn with examples of such laughter defined by its ability to crack up and destroy whilst opening new horizons of perception. Examining the creative operation of posthumorist laughter, this book explores how various stylists of the form, from Nathanael West and Kurt Vonnegut to Georges Bataille and Hélène Cixous, use it as a tool to unsettle, reconfigure the individual human, and shape different forms of humanist discourse.

The Fiction of Valerie Martin Veronica Makowsky, 2016-03-21

In the first book-length study of Valerie Martin's fiction, Veronica Makowsky explores the work of this lauded but often overlooked contemporary novelist. Winner of the Orange Prize for her novel Property (2003), Martin also won the Kafka Prize for Mary Reilly (1990), which was then translated into sixteen languages and made into a popular film. Despite these successes, her critically acclaimed novels and stories have yet to attain a broad readership. Makowsky addresses this disconnect through a detailed critical study of Martin's distinguished oeuvre, grounding each work in its historical, cultural, and theoretical contexts. Makowsky begins with a sketch of Martin's life and then considers each of her ten novels and four collections of short stories. Throughout, Makowsky's deft critique reveals Martin to be an astute observer of people and places, pointing to both early works like A Recent Martyr (1987) and recent books such as The Ghost of the Mary Celeste 2014 Makowsky identifies a potent mixture of pleasure and fear in Martin's writing that emphasizes the author's nuanced exploration of human imagination. Notable too are Martin's literary techniques especially point of view and her allusions to masterpieces in Western literature. The works of Henry and William James in particular influenced Martin's thematic blend of intellectualism and empathy evident in her rounded depictions of women in works like Italian Fever 1999 and The Great Divorce 1994. A rich and substantive study The Fiction of Valerie Martin demonstrates and deconstructs the mastery of this thought provoking author in turn firmly establishing Martin's place in the canon of contemporary writers.

approach to a much maligned linguistic pursuit Parsons distinguishes between nonsense language and Nonsense the genre Her major chapters work towards a vision of nonsense language as palimpsestic as involving the overlaying of several ways of making meaning on a verbal sense system and the consequent disruption of that system This reading of nonsense is itself an intersection bringing together historical and contemporary criticism of literary Nonsense and a wide range of poetic and literary theories Using Carroll and Lear as examples of Nonsense Parsons provides a survey of existing Nonsense criticism in English and then extends and elaborates nonsense in theoretical directions set by Gilles Deleuze and Julia Kristeva among others and by the poetics of such writers as Charles Olson Charles Bernstein Ron Silliman Steve McCaffery Louis Zukofsky and Daphne Marlatt Following each chapter is a close reading of work by writers as varied as Rudyard Kipling Colleen Thibaudreau Adrienne Rich and Lyn Hejinian These readings provide practical applications of nonsense theory and establish the interdependence of theory and practice Nonsense inhabits and challenges traditional forms simultaneously in Touch Monkeys Parsons enters into the spirit of the genre
