We Want Everything Nanni Balestrini, 2022-04-12. The explosive novel of Italy's revolutionary 1969. It was 1969 and temperatures were rising across the factories of the north as workers demanded better pay and conditions. Soon discontent would erupt in what became known as Italy's Hot Autumn. A young worker from the impoverished south arrives at Fiat's Mirafiori factory in Turin where his darker complexion begins to fade from the fourteen-hour workdays in sweltering industrial heat. His bosses try to withhold his wages. Our cynical, dry-witted narrator will not bend to their will. I want everything, everything that's owed to me, he tells them. Nothing more and nothing less because you don't mess with me. Around him, students are holding secret meetings and union workers begin halting work on the assembly lines, crippling the Mirafiori factory with months of continuous strikes. Before long, barricades line the roads, tear gas wafts into private homes, and the slogan We Want Everything is ringing through the streets. Wrought in spare and measured prose, Balestrini's novel depicts an explosive uprising. Introduced by Rachel Kushner, the author of the best-selling The Flamethrowers, We Want Everything is the incendiary fictional account of events that led to a decade of revolt. The School I Deserve Jo

Napolitano, 2021-04-20. Uncovers the key civil rights battle that immigrant children fought alongside the ACLU to ensure equal access to education within a xenophobic nation. Journalist Jo Napolitano delves into the landmark case in which the School District of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, was sued for refusing to admit older, non-English speaking refugees and sending them to a high discipline alternative school. In a legal battle that mirrors that of the Little Rock Nine and Brown v. Board of Education, 6 brave refugee students fought alongside the ACLU and Education Law Center to demand equal access. The School I Deserve illuminates the lack of support immigrant and refugee children face in our public school system and presents a hopeful future where all children can receive an equal education regardless of race, ethnicity, or their country of origin. One of the students, Khadija Issa, fled the horrific violence in war-torn Sudan with the hope of a safer life in the United States where she could enroll in school and eventually become a nurse. Instead, she was turned away by the School District of Lancaster before she was eventually enrolled in one of its alternative schools, a campus run by a for-profit company facing multiple abuse allegations Napolitano follows Khadija as she joins the lawsuit as a plaintiff in the Issa v School District of Lancaster case a legal battle that took place right before Donald Trump's presidential election when immigrants and refugees were maligned on a national stage The fiery week long showdown between the ACLU and the school district was ultimately decided by a conservative judge who issued a shocking ruling with historic implications The School I Deserve brings to light this crucial and underreported case which paved the way to equal access to education for countless immigrants and refugees to come
