

DIALOGUE: TOUR GUIDE

(At 8am in the morning)

Tour Guide: Good Day everyone! Annyeonghaseyo, you know why you're here right, we will travel around the magnificent Asian Latin City.

Tourist 1: I'm a bit confused what is Asian Latin City?

Tour Guide: It is our one and only, Zamboanga City!

Tourist 2: Can you explain further on why is it called Asian Latin City?

Tour Guide: Of course, Zamboanga City is sometimes referred to as the "Asian Latin City" due to its unique cultural blend of Hispanic and Asian influences. This nickname reflects the city's history of Spanish colonial rule and its diverse population, which includes people of Spanish, indigenous Filipino, and Chinese descent, among others. The city's architecture, cuisine, language, and customs all bear traces of its multicultural heritage, earning it the moniker "Asian Latin City."

Tourist 3: Woah, what a nice explanation

Tour Guide: Thanks, I hope you learned a thing or two.

Tourist 1: I'm so excited to start the journey!

Tour Guide: Me too! It brings me great joy to travel around with tourist such as you and teach you all about my beloved City.

Tour Guide: Before we start, let me introduce myself, my name is Faith Martin, I will serve as your tour guide for today.

Tourist(All) : Thankyou for having us today Miss Faith!

Tour Guide: Your welcome guys, I have some reminders, I have 2 flags here with me with the color green and red, the former signifies "Safe" while the latter represents "Emergency". Please be attentive so that today's tour will be safe and fun for us all. Before all, let's start the head count, 1.... 2..3.....21 including me.

Tourist 1: Can we have breakfast first before we start?

Tourist 3 & 4: I agree!

Tourist 2: I would like to try the dishes served as breakfast here in Zamboanga!

Tour Guide: Is that so? I know a good place we can fill our stomach!

Spoken Dialogue Systems Technology and Design Wolfgang Minker, Gary Geunbae Lee, Satoshi Nakamura, Joseph Mariani, 2010-11-09 Spoken Dialogue Systems Technology and Design covers key topics in the field of spoken language dialogue interaction from a variety of leading researchers. It brings together several perspectives in the areas of corpus annotation and analysis, dialogue system construction as well as theoretical perspectives on communicative intention, context-based generation and modelling of discourse structure. These topics are all part of the general research and development within the area of discourse and dialogue with an emphasis on dialogue systems, corpora and corpus tools and semantic and pragmatic modelling of discourse and dialogue. The Routledge Companion to Tour Guiding Shailja Sharma, 2025-08-29 This comprehensive handbook offers an in-depth exploration of both the theoretical and practical dimensions of tour guiding as a profession. It provides readers with valuable insights into examining the key and dynamic role of tour guides in the tourism industry and the evolving expectations of modern travelers. Enriched with global case studies spanning a diverse range of niche tours offered as tourism products around the world, the book highlights emerging trends and the importance of continuous skill development in the profession. It covers topics such as pre-tour preparations, the art of effectively opening and closing tours, engaging narration at attractions, the importance of technology for tour guides and the nuances of managing diverse groups. Additionally, it delves into the growing practice of virtual tour guiding and offers practical guidance on addressing guest inquiries, managing grievances and handling emergencies, besides addressing the new emerging trends in the field of tour guiding. This companion is designed for students and educators in tourism, travel and hospitality management programs worldwide. It serves as a valuable training manual for national, regional and local tourism authorities as well as tour operators and travel agencies. Furthermore, both seasoned professionals and aspiring tour guides will find it an essential reference to refine their skills and stay updated with contemporary best practices.

Dialogues with Social Robots Kristiina Jokinen, Graham Wilcock, 2016-12-23 This book explores novel aspects of social robotics, spoken dialogue systems, human-robot interaction, spoken language understanding, multimodal communication and system evaluation. It offers a variety of perspectives on and solutions to the most important questions about advanced techniques for social robots and chat systems. Chapters by leading researchers address key research and development topics in the field of spoken dialogue systems, focusing in particular on three special themes: dialogue state tracking, evaluation of human-robot dialogue in social robotics and socio-cognitive language processing. The book offers a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners in both academia and industry whose work involves advanced interaction technology and who are seeking an up-to-date overview of the key topics. It also provides supplementary educational material for courses on state-of-the-art dialogue system technologies, social robotics and related research fields. Promoting Creative Tourism: Current Issues in Tourism Research Ahmad Hudaiby, Galih Kusumah, Cep Ubad Abdullah, Dewi Turgarini, Mamat Ruhimat, Oce Ridwanudin, Yeni

The Tour Guide Jonathan R. Wynn,2011-07-05 Everyone wants to visit New York at least once The Big Apple is a global tourist destination with a dizzying array of attractions throughout the five boroughs The only problem is figuring out where to start and that s where the city s tour guides come in These guides are a vital part of New York's raucous sidewalk culture and as The Tour Guide reveals the tours they offer are as fascinatingly diverse and eccentric as the city itself. Visitors can take tours that cover Manhattan before the arrival of European settlers, the nineteenth-century Irish gangs of Five Points, the culinary traditions of Queens, the culture of Harlem, or even the surveillance cameras of Chelsea. In short, there are tours to satisfy anyone's curiosity about the city's past or present. And the guides are as intriguing as the subjects we learn as Jonathan R. Wynn explores the lives of the people behind the tours, introducing us to office workers looking for a diversion from their desk jobs, unemployed actors honing their vocal skills, and struggling retirees searching for a second calling. Matching years of research with his own experiences as a guide, Wynn also lays bare the grueling process of acquiring an official license and offers a how-to guide to designing and leading a tour. Touching on the long history of tour giving across the globe as well as the ups and downs of New York's tour guide industry in the wake of 9/11, The Tour Guide is as informative and insightful as the chatty, charming, and colorful characters at its heart.

Culture on Tour Edward M. Bruner, 2005. Analysing a variety of tourist productions ranging from dance dramas in Bali to an Abraham Lincoln heritage site in Illinois, Bruner considers the diverse perspectives of various actors, including the tourists, the producers, the natives, the anthropologist himself. Reanimating Industrial Spaces Hilary Orange, 2016-06-16

Reanimating Industrial Spaces explores the relationships between people and the places of former industry through approaches that incorporate and critique memory work. The chapters in this volume consider four broad questions: What is the relationship between industrial heritage and memory? How is memory involved in the process of place-making in regards to industrial spaces? What are the strengths and pitfalls of conducting memory work? What can be learned from cross-disciplinary perspectives and methods? The contributors have created a set of diverse case studies, including iron smelting in Uganda, Puerto Rican sugar mills, and concrete factories in Albania, which examine differing socio-economic contexts and approaches to industrial spaces both in the past and in contemporary society. A range of memory work is also illustrated from ethnography, oral history, digital technologies, excavation, and archival and documentary research. EurSafe2024

Management Sandeep Kumar Walia, 2020-12-20. This Handbook offers an up-to-date and comprehensive overview of core themes and concepts in community-based tourism management. Providing interdisciplinary insights from leading international scholars, this is the first book to critically examine the current status of community-based tourism. Organised into five parts, the Handbook provides cutting-edge perspectives on issues such as Indigenous communities, tourism and the environment, sustainability, and the impact of digital communities. Part 1 introduces core concepts and methodologies and distinguishes community products from other tourism and hospitality goods. Part 2 explores communities' attitudes towards tourism development and their engagement with and ownership of the process. It also delves into the role of community based tourism under the influence of governmental policies in the economic and social development of a region In Part 3 various management marketing and branding initiatives are identified as a means of expanding the tourism business Part 4 examines the negative impacts of mass tourism and its threats to culture tradition identity the built environment and natural heritage In the final and fifth part future challenges and opportunities for community based tourism initiatives are considered and research based sustainable solutions are proposed Overall the book considers engaging local populations in tourism development as a way of building stronger and more resilient communities This Handbook fills a void in the current research and thus will appeal to scholars students and practitioners interested in tourism management tourism geography business studies development policy and practice regional development conservation and sustainability POLITICAL POWER:
