Unequal Neighbors Kristen Hill Maher, David Carruthers, 2021-04-02 San Diego and Tijuana are the site of a national border enforcement spectacle but they are also neighboring cities with deeply intertwined histories cultures and economies In Unequal Neighbors Kristen Hill Maher and David Carruthers shift attention from the national border to a local one examining the role of place stigma in reinforcing actual and imagined inequalities between these cities Widespread bordered imaginaries in San Diego represent it as a place of economic vitality safety and order while stigmatizing Tijuana as a zone of poverty crime and corruption These dualisms misrepresent complex realities on the ground but they also have real material effects the vision of a local border benefits some actors in the region while undermining others Based on a wide range of original empirical materials the book examines how asymmetries between these cities have been produced and reinforced through stigmatizing representations of Tijuana in media everyday talk economic relations and local tourism discourse and practices However both place stigma and borders are subject to contestation and the book also examines debordering practices and counter narratives about Tijuana's image While the details of the book are particular to this corner of the world the kinds of processes it documents offer a window into the making of unequal neighbors more broadly The dynamics at the Tijuana border present a framework for understanding how inequalities that manifest in cultural practices produce asymmetric borders between places

Internationalisation of Post-1992 UK Universities Peter Brady, 2020-03-19 When they gained university status ex polytechnics expected to be funded on a par with their new university colleagues This was not the case and a number of government initiatives encouraged them to look overseas to recruit fee paying students Internationalisation of Post 1992 UK Universities details how the reaction to these initiatives changed the nature of post 1992 universities It also looks at how these universities work overseas and how foreign government strategies and policies mean that they are helping competitors and ensuring that foreign students gain a better educational experience than home students

Global Governance of Civil Aviation Safety Nilgun Ozgur, 2022-09-30 This book indicates the shortcomings of the current international legal system and customary international norms that govern international aviation law to comply with contemporary air transport market realities As the air transport market develops globally the safety regime of civil aviation should also be governed and applied globally In this book the author departs from current international legal norms to examine the emerging legal field of global administrative law Through that lens the possibility of reconstructing the set of legal mechanisms that govern domestic and international administrative interaction in the global field of aviation safety is explored This book demonstrates that a legal system is never complete but always develops in tandem with changing needs i e the participation of the affected parties Exploring the principles of GAL theory contributes to addressing the contemporary legal issues relating to state compliance with international aviation safety standards that would otherwise not be covered by customary international law In particular the principles of GAL theory regarding global governance and the public character of global regulations the role of individuals and states in global governance and state sovereignty are considered valuable contributions to contemporary global aviation safety issues in practice It is asserted in this book that proper checks and balances in global aviation safety can be improved by making these accessible to individuals by way of national courts Finally establishing public awareness of global aviation safety standards will eventually create greater pressure on states to implement and enforce them This book is in an area increasing academic and research interest of practitioners of public international aviation law global administrative law global governance and global aviation safety global air transport market regulations
