English as a Lingua Franca:

Perspectives and Prospects Marie-Luise Pitzl,Ruth Osimk-Teasdale,2016-07-11 In the past 15 years English as a lingua franca ELF has evolved from a niche topic of a relatively small group of specialists to a highly productive research area that now has a firm place on the map of linguistics Looking back as well as forward this edited volume addresses perspectives and prospects of ELF in connection with other areas of linguistics It is the first volume that brings together ELF scholars with experts from a wide range of areas in linguistics such as corpus linguistics sociolinguistics historical linguistics language pedagogy language policy intercultural communication Adopting an inter transdisciplinary approach the book traces the impact that discussions about ELF have had or may have beyond the study of ELF as such for the conceptualization description methodology pedagogy and politics of English As the book combines external perspectives on ELF provided by well known scholars in diverse fields with a smaller number of internal perspectives provided by prominent ELF scholars it will be of interest not only to students and researchers interested in ELF but also to students and scholars in Applied Linguistics Sociolinguistics and Intercultural Communication International Handbook on Education in Southeast Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco,Martin Hayden,2021-12-23 This International Handbook provides a detailed account of the education systems of 11 Southeast Asian nations including Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Lao People's Democratic Republic Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor Leste and Vietnam It presents a systematic sector by sector explanation of how these national education systems deliver educational services and respond to national and international issues and challenges With 56 chapters the International Handbook is the region's most comprehensive educational reference source In the first of its chapters the editors introduce the regional context and draw attention to the distinctive characteristics of each of the 11 systems Southeast Asia representing 8.5% of the world's population is as dynamic as it is diverse The International Handbook charts progress and establishes a benchmark for documenting future developments It also provides a stepping off point for more detailed investigations of decision making processes and outcomes across the 11 national education systems

The Inclusion for Students with Special Educational Needs across the Asia Pacific

Wendi Beamish,Mantak Yuen,2022-10-06 This book offers a comprehensive overview of how inclusion for students with special educational needs SEN has developed and is continuing to evolve in mainstream schools across the Asia Pacific region The authors provide an applied analysis of inclusive education in 10 geographical settings covering legislative historical and cultural perspectives A diverse range of factors that influence inclusive policy to practice implementation in these contexts are highlighted and practical strategies to address some key issues are put forward The settings in focus are the Maldives Singapore the Republic of Korea Mainland China Hong Kong Macao Japan Province of British Columbia Canada New Zealand and Australia Life Orientation Gr8 L/b , International Encyclopedia of Education ,2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequalled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files   Quality Assurance in Higher Education David Lim,2020-07-24 This title was first published in 2001 Universities in developing countries have followed their counterparts in developed countries and adopted quality assurance to improve the quality of their activities This text examines the wisdom of such a move when many of the conditions necessary for its success are not present It concludes that quality assurance can be useful in developing countries because it shows how a university's seemingly disparate activities are related to one another to serve a common goal and how the quality of these can best be improved by using an integrated approach Quality assurance also provides more focus and direction to the work of the traditional university system However it must be modified to suit the conditions prevailing in developing countries by being simple in design modest in expectations and realistic in requirements   Classifying Educational Programmes Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,1999 Discusses the methodology for using the 1997 revision of the International Standard Classification of Education ISCED 97 in international data collection   Contested Past, Disputed Present Falk Pingel,2003   Drum ,2006   Library Media Connection ,1991   The Big Guide to Living and Working Overseas ,2004   Population Census 1991 ,1991
