Gunn, 1993

Tourism Planning Clare A. Gunn, 1993 Tourism Planning Turgut Var, Clare Gunn, 2020-10-14 As one of the fastest growing sectors of the economy since the 1950s tourism has proved to be a complicated phenomenon unlike any other economic producer Over the last few decades tourism has exerted increasing pressure on the land and negative social environmental and economic impacts have surfaced as major issues Positive guidelines for better planning are in demand by developers and designers who need new understandings of the breadth of tourism s complexity for their own success Long considered the seminal work on tourism development Tourism Planning provides a comprehensive integrated overview of all aspects of tourism and the planning functions that accompany it emphasizing concepts and principles for better planning

Tourism Planning Clare A. Gunn, 1979 Handbook on Tourism Planning Philip F. Xie, 2023-12-11 Timely and accessible this Handbook offers a thorough account of the growth development and changes in the field of tourism planning over recent decades With contributions from an interdisciplinary and international range of top scholars it examines critical issues and challenges facing contemporary tourism planning Covering research at local national and global levels chapters unpack and frame planning strategies in various destinations expanding the definition of tourism planning to encompass a range of successful case studies Sustainable Tourism II C. A. Brebbia, F. D. Pineda, 2006 Contributors from the tourist industry economics and environmental sciences consider issues raised by an increased desire of tourists to see nature and experience exotic cultures rather than visit famous ruins and cities and the growing acknowledgment that tourism degrades those very attractions Only the authors are indexed Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Tourism, Planning, and Community Development Rhonda Phillips, Sherma Roberts, 2013-09-13 The intersection of community development tourism and planning is a fascinating one Tourism has long been used as a development strategy in both developed and developing countries from the national to local levels These approaches have typically focused on economic dimensions with decisions about tourism investments policies and venues driven by these economic considerations More recently the conversation has shifted to include other aspects social and environmental to better reflect sustainable development concepts Perhaps most importantly is the richer focus on the inclusion of stakeholders An inclusionary participatory approach is an essential ingredient of community development and this brings both fields even closer together It reflects an approach aimed at building on strengths in communities and fostering social capacity and capital In this book the dimensions of the role tourism plays in community development are explored A panoply of perspectives are presented tackling such questions as can tourism heal How can tourism development serve as a catalyst to overcome social injustices and cultural divides This book was originally published as a special issue of Community Development The Rotarian, 1998-10 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Tourism Policy and Planning Implementation Konstantinos Andriotis, Dimitrios Styliadis, Adi Weidenfeld, 2018-09-14 Policy and planning are particularly important in tourism due to their multi faceted nature and the complexity of inter organisational relations and collaboration This book sheds light onto these interrelations through the critical review of tourism planning policies and their measurable outcomes Looking at a range of policies in a variety of countries at both micro and macro levels it considers both the failures and successes of implementing tourism policies and planning initiatives Policies discussed throughout include cross border tourism planning in post conflict destinations and sustainable tourism development This multidisciplinary volume furthers knowledge of the impacts of planning and policy implementation on tourism development both present and future Written by an international team of highly esteemed academics from some of the world s leading institutions this will be a valuable resource for students and researchers in tourism sociology geography development studies politics economics and management Planning for Tourism Nigel D Morpeth, Hongliang Yan, 2015-05-01 This text provides an innovative approach to the pedagogy of contemporary planning processes within different cultural contexts globally It adopts an innovative multi disciplinary social science approach and through the inclusion of international case studies considers the extent to which intelligent design has enabled the needs of disabled residents and visitors to have universal access to social spaces and facilities In incorporating the consideration into the fabric of the book it will encourage the mainstreaming of universal design and accessible tourism as keystones of planning processes within the C21st Tourism in Destination Communities Shalini Singh, Dallen J. Timothy, Ross Kingston Dowling, 2003 Annotation As a result of the ongoing growth in the tourism industry many destinations around the world are undergoing transformations New destinations are being discovered in regions previously ignored as people search for regions that are yet unspoiled by the ravages of mass tourism

At the same time traditional destinations are experiencing rapid environmental socio cultural and economic modifications These changes have the most effect on the destination community the location where tourists spend their time and money and influence development or degradation of the local environment Tourism in Destination Communities describes both the positive and negative effects of tourism on the destination community The chapters are divided into three sections which address the relationship between tourism and the destination community the various impacts of tourism on the destination community and the challenges and opportunities for destination communities Each chapter contains brief case studies and empirical examples

Tourism in South and Southeast Asia C. Michael Hall, Stephen Page, 2012-10-12 Tourism in South and South East Asia is a comprehensive and solid introduction to tourism in South and South East Asia with a specific appeal both to institutions in the region and other institutions who wish to expose students to one of the most dynamic tourism regions in the world Despite downturns in outbound tourism due to the current economic crisis inbound tourism from outside the region has continued to increase with governments placing more emphasis on the economic significance of tourism than ever Tourism in South and South East Asia is the first tourism book to deal comprehensively with the implications of the Asian economic crisis for tourism With South and South East Asia set to be the fastest growing area of tourism activity in the world well into the next century Tourism in South and South East Asia is an essential text for students both within and outside of this region Dealing with concepts themes and issues which are pertinent to tourism development planning marketing and management these two internationally known authors have produced an authoritative text that covers all aspects of this topic through the use of illustrative and relevant case studies
