Emerging Trends in Nigerian Art Music Composition and Performance Oghenemudiakevwe Igbi, 2025-04-22 Nigeria brims with an array of art musicians who have endeavoured to create and perform art music using traditional compositional nuances and performance practices In a clime where other musical styles seem to thrive more than art music Nigerian composers are always on the lookout for fresh ideas and techniques in their creative endeavours in pursuance of sundry objectives As a dynamic art music composition and performance continue to evolve and offer themselves to an extensive range of creative dimensions Hence it becomes imperative to be acquainted with such emerging trends in furtherance of the course for the actualisation of an authentic Nigerian art music identity The book is a compendium of twenty one articles by eminent Nigerian music scholars Divided into three sections the book is not only targeted at illuminating the minds of its readers but is also a scholarly literature that interrogates and unearths some of the emerging developments in the field of music The chapters contained herein dwell on a variety of issues in the art from different viewpoints of art music composition composers art music performance or practices African music popular music and music education Ikoli Harcourt Whyte, the Man and His Music Achinivu Kanu Achinivu, 1979 On African Music Kofi Agawu, 2023-05-19 Written by one of the best known academic writers on African music On African Music is a collection of seven essays addressing various techniques influences and scholarly approaches to African music After a concise introduction spelling out the rationale for the book successive chapters develop answers to questions such as How does a minimalist impulse animate creativity in Africa and does Western minimalism differ from African minimalism How do we explain the prevalence of iconic effects in African expressive forms How has European tonality functioned as a colonizing force in African music Why is the written art music of the continent talked about so little when it has been in existence since the middle of the nineteenth century How might the discipline of music theory be rejuvenated by aid from Africa What are the strengths and limitations of ethnotheory as a methodology Who is who in theorizations of African rhythm and how might we explain the shape of the existing archive This book thus deals with analytical and interpretive issues the politics of scholarship and salient features of African music Laced with provocative viewpoints on each page On African Music should appeal not only to readers curious about the structural underpinnings of African music but also to those who wish to reflect critically and philosophically on how we study and write about the music of the continent how we might approach its global status with a firm understanding from the inside and what our priorities might be in promoting an empowering cosmopolitan discourse

Migration and Christian Identity in Congo (DRC) Emma Wild-Wood, 2008-08-31 Christianity and migration have greatly influenced society and culture of sub Saharan Africa yet their mutual impact is rarely studied Through oral history research in north eastern Congo DRC this book studies the migration of Anglicans and the subsequent reconfiguring of their Christian identity It engages with issues of religious contextualisation revivalism and the rise of Pentecostalism It examines shifting ethnic national gender and generational expressions the influence of tradition contemporaneity local needs and international networks to reveal mobile group identities developing through migration Borrowing the metaphor of home from those interviewed the book suggests in what ways religious affiliation aids a process of belonging The result is an original exploration of important themes in an often neglected region of Africa

Bible Stories Bella Stevenson, 2018-03-16 Three boys and four girls were already living with Mama when Osas came to join them as the eighth domestics servant She had a four room apartment in the Warders Barracks Abude where she was the prisons Department head cook At the end of every day the remnants of the raw food stuffs from the kitchen were shared into three parts Two thirds went to the Chief Warder s house while Mama Benin had the rest The same went for palm oil salt mutton and firewood So food was not her problem mama Benin never spent a kobo of her salary on food stuffs She was thus in a position to maintain a large number of domestic servants All the seven boys and girls living with her were off spring of her distant relations Osas abalone was her nephew Mama Benin was a strict disciplinarian She never speared the rod The slightest offence by any of her servants attracted heavy flogging Even when a neighbor intervened she never failed to use the cane The only thing she did if she like the intruder as she always called person was to reduce the number of strokes to be given out to any offender who had an interceder The offender might be lucky to have just twelve lashes Sometimes she might be infuriated by the plea from a neighbour and so increase the number of strokes to twenty four Tired to receiving entreaties from any one on behalf of any offending servant she devised another method of flogging her offenders She kept a number of canes in her bedroom As soon as a servant committed any offence she sent the culprit to fetch something for her from her bedroom She was always obeyed Seconds later she would close up with the offender in her bedroom lock up the door and empty as many canes she wanted on the culprit The best the pleading neighbours could do was to plead for mercy for she would open the windows Such pleas normally fell on deaf ears as she would open the door release the culprit only when she was satisfied that she had meted out of the offender severe punishment as she pleased
