Johannes Harnischfeger, 2008 When democracy was introduced to Nigeria in 1999 one third of its federal states declared that they would be governed by sharia or Islamic law This work argues that such a break with secular constitutional traditions in a multireligious country can have disastrous consequences Making of an African Giant Dan Mou, 2015-10-16 The performance of Nigeria has recently been vehemently criticized as not commensurate with her human and material potentialities The hope that Nigeria is by destiny the African Giant appears to be fading Some analysts seeing this have blamed it on the character defects of the leadership in Nigeria They argue that because the leaders are predatory and corrupt they have preoccupied themselves with their interests which are primitive accumulation and luxurious lifestyles Meanwhile the rest of the citizens are suffering This book argues that such character defects may indeed exist in some of Nigerian leaders However these are not the main reasons for their dismal performance regarding the welfare of the citizens The main problem is that Nigerian leaders seem to have largely lost control over the state and its policies which appear to have been captured by the dominant classes and groups local and international Nigerias main problem is therefore a structural one Nonetheless the book concludes as the security economic political and social crises intensify Nigerian leaders even if it is simply for self preservation will be forced by the objective conditions to move against the interests of these dominant classes and groups It is only then that Nigeria can realistically be restored to the possibility of becoming an African Giant

The African Child Asuzu Agwunobi, 2016-07-28 The African Child author tells it as it happened from the harrowing childhood experience to the ups and downs of his adulthood in the African capital cities and the rural typical village The interesting mix of hard work and faith in Gods Providence makes for an exhilarating reading that challenges African policy makers The authors critical assessment of the Nigerian crisis in the mid sixties soon after Independence as he places blame on both sides of the conflict depicts the writers sense of impartiality to be encouraged by political leaders particularly in Africa This book examines thoughtfully the various stages in human development and finds no excuse in the down trodden level of the black man from his native land in Africa to his imposed second home anywhere particularly in the United States In the closing chapters the book exposes the hardship the loss of human dignity and personal exploitation of all black people from the days of the slave trade till today The book challenges the conscience of world leaders and calls for Reparation for slavery and colonialism Besides the author seeks to inculcate the spirit of self respect in all African people maintaining that self respect is the smoothening oil for human dignity while chastising all races of mankind to judge a person not by the color of his skin but by the content of his character as Dr Martin Luther King Jr admonished This is a must read for all civil rights activists college young students and world leaders and politicians Asuzu Agwunobi Martindale-Hubbell International Law Directory ,1994 Inclusive Education

Developments in Africa Ngozi Chuma Umeh,2024-09-02 This book contributes to the discourse on disability in Africa as an issue of systemic exclusion characterized by the discrimination and often complete segregation of persons with disabilities PWDs in various African countries Despite the inclusive promise of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD as well as the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities in Africa the situation has not actually improved for PWDs in Africa Given the powerful evidence of the devaluation of PWDs in connection with the COVID 19 pandemic it is high time to reflect on the experiences of persons with disabilities in education along with other forms of discrimination they encounter The book s respective chapters assess how well the existing legal frameworks policies and practices in most African countries have met the needs for inclusion of children and adults with disabilities The social and economic rights of persons with disabilities are protected in the constitutions of most countries and enshrined in the normative frameworks that most African leaders have adopted and ratified These commitments need to be borne in mind when thinking about the present and the future Inclusive development is an investment and must be viewed as part of a package of reforms that are connected to substantive social protection and improvements in realizing other socio economic goods Indeed a range of alliances are needed to advance the goals of leaving no one behind ensuring education for all and delivering on the African Union s call for the development of policies programmes and requisite budgets for the realization of inclusive education for persons with disabilities The
