Nevada's Highway 50 Janice Oberding,2018-09-17 The 287 mile stretch of highway that runs east to west across Nevada's desert is billed as the Loneliest Road in America But those who explore it find there is plenty to discover along the way in the towns of Austin Eureka Ely Fallon and Fernley Every one of these places has its own unique history ghosts and stories to tell From the sordid lynching of Richard Jennings to the humorous legend about a famous sack of flour author Janice Oberding treks across Highway 50 seeking spirits and uncovering the tales of Singing Sand Mountain the Red Headed Giants the Giroux Mine Disaster and many more I Get Paid for This Rick Lax,2011 This is a hilarious must read for anyone intrigued by Las Vegas nightlife or the real lives of the unique people who truly make Sin City tick From street magician to strip club restroom attendant from casino executive to oyster shucker stunt journalist Rick Lax turned his hand to several distinctly unique Las Vegas professions on a quest to get inside the skin of Sin City And now he's spilling the beans on all of it Rick crashes bizarre only in Vegas conventions throws wild parties and hangs out with celebrities He moonlights as a strip club restroom attendant a street magician and a casino executive And he always takes notes Now he is ready to share em In this book Lax shines a light on a side of Las Vegas to which previously only the know hipsters had access Fully illustrated and featuring the full colour photography of Bryan Adams the book provides a one of a kind view of the most bizarre city on Earth a funny and insightful exploration into the real Las Vegas The Caterpillar Times ,1920 Caterpillar Times

,1918 Southern Pacific Bulletin ,1922 Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1949 The South American ,1916 The Loom of the Desert Idah Meacham Strobbridge,2022-08-21 In The Loom of the Desert Idah Meacham Strobbridge weaves a vivid tapestry of life in the arid landscapes of the Southwest exploring the intricate connections between environment and identity Through her lyrical prose and keen observations Strobbridge captures the harsh yet beautiful reality of desert life portraying both its challenges and its spiritual richness The novel is set against the backdrop of early 20th century America a time of cultural transformation and it reflects the author's nuanced understanding of the interplay between nature and humanity. Strobbridge's ability to blend lyrical descriptions with deeper philosophical inquiries into survival and belonging marks this work as a significant contribution to American regional literature. Idaho Meacham Strobbridge was a pioneering writer from the West whose own experiences in the desert informed her storytelling. Raised in a family that valued creativity and the arts, she infuses her narratives with a deep appreciation for the environment and its impact on personal and cultural identity. Her background as a teacher and community member in the Southwest allowed her to observe the intricate dynamics of its inhabitants, both indigenous and settlers, shaping her powerful narrative voice. I highly recommend The Loom of the Desert to readers interested in the intersection of nature and human experience. Strobbridge's adept storytelling not only offers a glimpse into a specific time and place but also invites contemplation on broader themes of resilience and connection. This novel is essential for anyone who seeks to understand the profound relationship between landscapes and the lives they shape.

The lives and careers of Rogers and his wife Dale Evans are thoroughly covered, particularly their work on radio and television.
