The Night Battles Carlo Ginzburg, 2013-10-15 A remarkable tale of witchcraft, folk culture, and persuasion in early modern Europe. Based on research in the Inquisitorial archives of Northern Italy, The Night Battles recounts the story of a peasant fertility cult centered on the benandanti, literally good walkers. These men and women described fighting extraordinary ritual battles against witches and wizards in order to protect their harvests. While their bodies slept, the souls of the benandanti were able to fly into the night sky to engage in epic spiritual combat for the good of the village. Carlo Ginzburg looks at how the Inquisition's officers interpreted these tales to support their world view that the peasants were in fact practicing sorcery. The result of this cultural clash, which lasted for more than a century, was the slow metamorphosis of the benandanti into the Inquisition's mortal enemies witches Relying upon this exceptionally well documented case study Ginzburg argues that a similar transformation of attitudes perceiving folk beliefs as diabolical witchcraft took place all over Europe and spread to the New World In his new preface Ginzburg reflects on the interplay of chance and discovery as well as on the relationship between anomalous cases and historical generalizations Crocodiles at Night Gisela Heffes,2025-05-20 Crocodiles at Night follows the difficult journey of death and all it affects family memories place through the eyes of a woman as she travels between her home in Houston and her ailing father in Argentina Although the outcome of Crocodiles at night does not remain a surprise beyond the first paragraph it expands outwards in philosophical heartfelt reverberations true to Heffes's style Crocodiles at Night explores familial ties memories and images of places that are no longer the same the vagaries of the medical system and social critique in this heartfelt excruciating view of death and how it affects all who experience it The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night — Volume 10 Richard F.
