

NIGHT CHAPTER 5 - SUMMARY

For Rosh Hashanah all the Jews gather together at the assembly place and are a little nervous, wondering whether the last day of the year might really be their last. Eliezer angrily compares God's greatness with the weakness of the assembled Jews. Thousands of men prostrate themselves to God, but Eliezer refuses to bless a God who has allowed crematories to exist. Though he used to be a mystic and used to love New Year's Day, this year he accuses God of injustice and feels strong, yet alone, without God or man. Eliezer runs to find his father when people start wishing each other a happy new year, but neither he nor his father say anything when they see each other. They both understand that the other is reluctant to observe the Jewish holiday. Eliezer and his father refuse to fast for Yom Kippur, and Eliezer feels a pleasant revolt against God. Nevertheless, he still feels a void in his soul.

Eliezer is transferred without his father to the building unit, where he has to drag blocks of stone around, and he learns that a selection (exam for assigning people to the crematory) is planned for that day. The head of Eliezer's block gives some helpful advice: run as fast as possible in front of the SS doctors, and don't be afraid. When Dr. Mengele appears, all the prisoners march in front of him as he writes down the numbers of those to be cremated. When Eliezer's turn comes, he runs as fast as he can, and his friends Yossi and Tibi tell him he was running too fast for Dr. Mengele to write his number down. Eliezer's father tells him that he also passed the selection. Afterwards, the head of the block tells them that nothing will happen to anybody and not to worry about the numbers Dr. Mengele wrote down. After a few days, the head of the block reads out a list of numbers of people who are to remain in the blocks instead of going to work, and everyone knows what is to happen to them. Eliezer's father runs up terrified, saying that his number has been called, and he gives Eliezer a knife and a spoon as parting gifts. Eliezer feels like he is sleepwalking that entire day. After work, Eliezer finds out that his father had convinced the SS that he was still strong and luckily escaped the crematories. However, Akiba Drumer went to the crematories. Recently he had lost his faith and, simultaneously, all reason for living. He was not the only one who abandoned God during this time. Before his death he asked his fellow prisoners to say the Kaddish (the prayer for the dead) for him. Although they promised him they would, they forgot.

Winter arrives, and it is bitterly cold. Eliezer's foot begins to swell because of the cold, and he has to get an operation to prevent it from being amputated. The hospital is much more bearable since there is no work and better food. His bedside neighbor, a Hungarian Jew, warns him that all the invalids will be killed with the next selection and that he should try to leave the hospital right away. Eliezer does not know whether to believe him or to suspect that he just wants Eliezer's hospital bed. After he awakes from his operation, Eliezer worries that his leg has been amputated but is afraid to ask the doctor. The doctor tells him to trust him and that he will soon be walking in a fortnight. Two days after his operation, Eliezer hears that the front is advancing to Buna, and that very day the camp is ordered evacuated. Hospital occupants will not be evacuated, however, and Eliezer worries that all invalids will be exterminated. He runs to meet his father outside, and his right foot leaves bloody marks in the snow. After some deliberation, Eliezer and his father decide to leave the hospital and be evacuated with

The Practice of Contemplation According to John of the Cross James W. Kinn, 2018-07-23 This book is for anyone who now meditates regularly or who practiced meditation in the past As we grow in our prayer life John of the Cross is an excellent and encouraging guide to show us the way to the practice of contemplative prayer Many of us learned about meditation from spiritual directors or books We practiced a reliable form of meditation for some years with varying degrees of success Over time however our prayer slowed down and became simplified We didn t find many new ideas to occupy our intellect and our emotions quieted down In time many of us experienced a crisis in our prayer life our prayer became so simple that it almost disappeared We tried different forms of prayer but we seemed to be reaching a dead end Throughout all of this we were never told that our prayer was developing naturally and positively What we were experiencing was not a dead end but the threshold of a new way of prayer What we needed was an experienced guide to show us the road ahead Enter John of the Cross He encourages us to see that the place we came to is a necessary state of our progress in prayer John teaches us that we come to contemplation not by struggling harder to pray but by calming remaining quiet before God He encourages us to realize that we have not come to the end of the road but are being made ready to be transported on a wonderful journey There is no better or more encouraging guide for us on this journey than John of the Cross The entire focus of this book is quite narrow it concentrates on John s teaching about the beginning of contemplation Jewish Jurisprudence Emanuel B. Quint,Neil S.

Hecht,2023-08-11 First published in 1986 Jewish Jurisprudence is the second volume of an important series analysing and setting forth the substantive principles of Jewish jurisprudence It encompasses the applicable sources of Jewish law from the original transmission to Moses on Sinai of the terse written law and its accompanying oral elaboration through its development to the present day Each topic concludes with the authors view of the present status of the law In former years the public teaching and discussion of law occupied a prominent place in Jewish culture Today estrangement from the language of Halacha has made it less accessible to the general public This series is an attempt to open the world of Jewish law to the layperson general scholars and specialists in jurisprudence Night Vision Roadmap Matthew

The Audience Decides Patrick A. Stewart,2023-06-07 The Audience Decides argues that the political parties aided and abetted by mass media have abdicated one of their most important responsibilities that of providing and vetting the best leadership options available The search for followers ratings and attention has led to the structure of presidential debates especially during the primary season being driven by goals of entertaining the public at the expense of enlightening the citizenry To understand the role of the audience as active participant in political debates and how their function has been subverted this book focuses on behavior by the candidates and in person audiences during the 2016 and 2020 general election debates It does so by using observational methods to consider nonverbal behaviors by candidates to establish on stage dominance and the observable audience reactions by the in person audience and their effect on those following the debates It is anticipated that The Audience Decides will allow for evaluation and reconsideration of how debates or whatever replaces them might not only entertain but also enlighten the most important part of representative democracy the voting public Ultimately it is hoped that debates will help the audience decide who their leader will be based upon substance not style

The Flower of Paradise David J.

Rothenberg, 2011-09-14 There is a striking similarity between Marian devotional songs and secular love songs of the late Middle Ages and Renaissance Two disparate genres one sacred the other secular one Latin the other vernacular both praise an idealized impossibly virtuous woman Each does so through highly stylized derivations of traditional medieval song forms Marian prayer derived from earlier Gregorian chant and love songs and lyrics from medieval courtly song Yet despite their obvious similarities the two musical and poetic traditions have rarely been studied together Author David J Rothenberg takes on this task with remarkable success producing a useful and broad introduction to Marian music and liturgy and then coupling that with an incisive comparative analysis of these devotional forms and the words and music of secular love songs of the period The Flower of Paradise examines the interplay of Marian devotional and secular poetics within polyphonic music from ca 1200 to ca 1500 Through case studies of works that demonstrate a specific symbolic resonance between Marian devotion and secular song the book illustrates the distinctive ethos of this period in European culture Rothenberg makes use of an impressive command of liturgical and religious studies literature and poetry and art history to craft a study with wide application across disciplinary boundaries With its broad scope and unique incisive analysis this book will open up new ways of thinking about the history and development of secular and sacred music and the Marian tradition for scholars students and anyone with an interest in medieval and Renaissance religious culture
