Roger Carswell, 2009 If God exists and really is a God of love then why doesn't he stop the suffering and problems in our world Roger Carswell is realistic enough to admit that there are things God reveals to us and things he doesn't reveal He argues that the starting point is to find out who God is and figure out if he can be trusted even if we don't have all the answers God has not only been faithful to me he has been overwhelmingly kind incredibly merciful consistently good and unbelievably patient says Roger The author's own experience of suffering with depression and other real life stories that are included make this a compassionate look at one of the toughest questions about the Christian faith Moreover our questioning need not be a barrier to entrusting ourselves to God
