Making Africa Work Greg Mills, Olusegun Obasanjo, Jeffrey Herbst, Dickie Davis, 2017-09-15 Sub Saharan Africa faces three big inter related challenges over the next generation It will double its population to two billion by 2045 By then more than half of Africans will be living in cities And this group of mostly young people will be connected with each other and the world through mobile devices Properly harnessed and planned for this is a tremendously positive force for change Without economic growth and jobs it could prove a political and social catastrophe Old systems of patronage and of muddling through will no longer work because of these population increases Instead if leaders want to continue in power they will have to promote economic growth in a more dynamic manner Making Africa Work is a first hand account and handbook of how to ensure growth beyond commodities and create jobs in the continent Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations SADC Gender Protocol 2017 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Makamure, Lucia, 2017-10-04 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol its updating implementation and tracking Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015 SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable development Goals SDGs Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016 In July 2017 the Ministers adopted a Monitoring Evaluation and Reporting Framework MERF that will be the basis of future reporting Now in its ninth edition the 2017 Barometer is the first assessment of the Post 2015 SADC Gender Protocol Moving with the times the Alliance has expanded the two key main yardsticks in the Barometer the SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI and the Citizen Score Card CSC The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice choice and control The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region A wealth of data insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi media formats The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50 50 by 2030

Homicide in Criminal Law Alan Reed, Michael Bohlander, 2018-10-03 This volume presents a leading contribution to the substantive arena relating to homicide in the criminal law In broad terms the ambit of homicide standardisations in extant law is contestable and opaque This book provides a logical template to focus the debate The overall concept addresses three specific elements within this arena embracing an overarching synergy between them This edifice engages in an examination of UK provisions and in contrasting these provisions against alternative domestic jurisdictions as well as comparative contributions addressing a particularised research grid for content The comparative chapters provide a wider background of how other legal systems treat a variety of specialised issues relating to homicide in the context of the criminal law The debate in relation to homicide continues apace for academics practitioners and within the criminal justice system Having expert descriptions of the wider issues surrounding the particular discussion and of other legal systems approaches serves to stimulate and inform that debate This collection will be a major source of reference for future discussion

Corruption, Sustainable Development and Security Challenges in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, Sr., 2023-09-07 This book sheds light on Africa's development performance and dynamics arising from the interface between corruption and sustainable development on the one hand and the challenges that poses for peace security and stability Corruption also contributes to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism Pervasive corruption networks often include politicians civil servants working at all levels of state institutions representatives of the private sector and members of crime syndicates The consequences of corruption are detrimental in many aspects such as undermining governments ability to serve public interests and eroding public trust in democratic processes Presenting empirical evidence the book explains why corruption and the looting of staggering amounts of national assets undermine the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and has a negative impact on peace stability security the rule of law gender equality the environment and human rights This makes the book a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science international relations and economics in general as well as African studies development studies and security sector studies in particular covering issues and themes on corruption governance socio economic sustainable development public administration and management policing in an international context police reform and security sector reform It will also serve as a helpful resource for policy makers interested in a better understanding of the connection between corruption sustainable development and security challenges in Sub Saharan Africa Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09-01 Using conversations observations and reflections psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love violence and masculinity This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele s meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender intimacy and power in the context of the human need for love and care While unsparing in his analysis of men s inner lives Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender sexuality and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised so our ideas about masculinity and men s and boys capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization Nigeria-South Africa Relations and Regional Hegemonic Competence Oluwaseun Tella, 2018-11-27 This book examines the relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their implications for regional influence across the African continent With the largest and third largest economies in the region and a historical status as the major peacemakers on the continent it is often argued that Africa s fate is directly linked to the success or failure of these regional powers While there is widespread reference to each state s capabilities and regional influence in the extant literature little analysis is offered on relations between Nigeria and South Africa and their impact on regional governance and provision of public goods on the continent This book attempts to fill the gap by engaging issues such as the hegemonic competence of the states their credentials for a permanent seat at the UNSC their efforts towards regional integration and their efforts towards combating the dark side of globalization including climate change drug trafficking and xenophobia It also engages a gender perspective to these states relations as well as their experiences of transitional justice Providing an in depth comparative analysis of the two so called African powerhouses this volume will be of interest to policy makers academics and students interested in Nigeria and South Africa s foreign policy regional powerhood and the African peace security and development agenda

Corruption and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M.

Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2020-03-12 This collection of essays focuses on the critical issue of corruption that lies at the heart of the crisis of constitutionalism in Africa Most anti corruption measures over the years have been inadequate serving merely as symbolic gestures to give the impression something is being done The African Union s declaration of 2018 as the African anti corruption year belated though it be is an open recognition by African governments of the impact corruption will have on the continent unless urgent steps are taken The key objective of this volume is to draw attention to the problem of corruption the complexity of the situation with all its multi faceted social political economic and legal dimensions and the need for remedial action

European Journal of Policing Studies, 2018-07-31 Contents Introduction Antoinette Verhage Lieselot

Bisschop and Wim Hardyns br Articles How to Police a Porous Fortress Monica den Boer 1 Abstract The purpose of this article is to provide an overview of the way in which the European Union has gradually but steadily built a security architecture based on the control of mobility and borders Different logics of policing are interwoven in several projects which are strongly interdependent with technological innovation Furthermore the European policing of mobility is primarily performed by mounting surveillance both inside and beyond European borders by means of which all forms of movement transactions travelling etc are subjected to intensive monitoring by multiple actors who are interlinked through strategies and systems The main finding is that border policing is shifting in a fundamental way from fixed to fluid from territorial to virtual and from physical to technological Hence paradoxically though mobility is strongly promoted as one of the main virtues of the European Union Europe s precautionary protection may be at ill ease with the free movement of people The article seeks to stimulate the knowledge and debate about deeper shifts in Europe s security apparatus and develops this from a law enforcement perspective Keywords Europe borders security mobility technology 1 Academic Dean at the Police Academy of The Netherlands Member of the Committee on European Integration of the Advisory Council on International Affairs and Visiting Professor at the College of Europe in Bruges Police Science in Germany History and New Perspectives Joachim Kersten 1 and Ansgar Burchard 2 Abstract In the German speaking academic world Police Science

Polizeiwissenschaft is a fairly new and little known area of social science Accordingly the academic status of police science is anything but firmly established but rather at a hybrid stage of development The very combination of policing and academic study research seems to remain largely incompatible not only to police managers but also to main stream sociology German police science differs substantially from the Anglo American Australian approach One main difference pertains to legal traditions others are due to historical and cultural developments that will be taken up in this descriptive essay However Anglo American Australian police theories have a lot to offer to German and European police scientists and this will be demonstrated For a future common approach to an evolving European police science similar descriptions will be required from other European countries to establish a comparative foundation of joint EU police studies Some of the principal dimensions of such a comparison will be sketched in this essay It concludes with a presentation of empirically based police studies carried out by instructors and Master students at the newly founded German Police University in Münster Topics are media coverage of clashes between police and demonstrators a typology of third party intervention in cases of assault in public places and COREPOL EU FP7 a comparative security research project aiming at an improvement of police minority relations through means of restorative justice programs Keywords Police Science in Germany accountability YouTube public relations Facebook civil courage violent assaults 1 Professor and Head of Department of the Department of Police Science at the German Police University Germany DAAD Professor at Northwestern University and guest professor in Maastricht NL in Sydney Australia and in Tokyo Japan 2 Senior Researcher for COREPOL EU FP7

There is no Supreme Constitution Koos Malan, 2019-10-08 None of the articles of faith of the South African Constitution is plausible The Constitution is not supreme and entrenched Subject to potent socio political forces it changes continuously and often profoundly regardless of stringent amendment requirements The trite threefold separation of powers is more metaphorical than real and therefore unable to secure effective checks and balances Though institutionally separated with their own personnel and functions the three powers are ordinarily integrated in a single dominant political leadership committed to achieving the same ideological goals The bill of individual rights cannot guarantee justice because rights are subject to the ideologically driven exercise of judicial interpretation often with damaging consequences for those relying on the bill of rights This situation does not only apply to South Africa but to all Constitutions premised on the same articles of faith in this book described as the doctrine of statist individualist constitutionalism An improved mode of constitutionalism is called for one which is equipped with a sounder system of checks and balances and better endowed towards the achievement of justice through a balanced constitution

All Rise Dikgang Moseneke,2021-08-02 At the young age of fifteen Dikgang Moseneke was imprisoned for participating in anti apartheid activities During his ten years of incarceration he completed his schooling by correspondence and earned two university degrees Afterwards he studied law at the University of South Africa After some years in general legal practice and at the Bar and a brief segue into business Moseneke was persuaded that he would best serve the country s young democracy by taking judicial office All Rise covers his years on the bench with particular focus on his fifteen year term as a judge at South Africa s apex court the Constitutional Court including as the deputy chief justice His insights into the Constitutional Court s structures the personalities peopling it the values it embodies the human dramas that shook it and the cases that were brought to it make for fascinating reading From the Constitutional Court of Arthur Chaskalson to the Mogoeng Mogoeng era Moseneke s understated but astute commentary is a reflection on the country s ongoing but not altogether comfortable journey to a better life for all

Exploring the Conditions that Impact Local Administration Responsiveness work to Migrants in selected Metropolitan Municipalities of South Africa Kibreab Habtemichael Gebereselassie,2022-01-03 Research on local administration responsiveness towards migrant s and non citizens revealed that demographic characteristics in local municipalities have often caused challenges for local administrations to be responsive to the diverse needs of their communities Lucio et al 2013 Lucio 2016 The objective of this study was to explore the conditions that impact on the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in Durban Cape Town Johannesburg metropolitan municipalities of South Africa The study s goal is met by identifying five major conditions that impact the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in the study areas Conducted in two rounds field research the study used qualitative research design methods Semistructured interviews group discussions field memos and observations were used to collect data Thematic analysis method was implemented to investigate and analyze the collected raw data This dissertation also used relevant theory as framework and guide to uncover elements of local administrative responsiveness which are associated with migrants The study identified and demonstrated that five major conditions impact the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in the study areas Local administration work environment administration organizational structure and professionalism external control from elected officials and local politics migrant s community association and economic contribution of migrants are the main conditions that impact on the responsiveness work of the local administration The findings also showed that anchored in the above five conditions administrative responsiveness also varies across the selected study areas This study also contributed by adding new insights about the mechanisms on how the local administration can address the issues of migrants who do not have a direct representation in the local government structure Accordingly for a better responsiveness work to migrants and to support the inclusion of migrants who do not have a direct political representation the study proposes recommendation for policy practice and research that targets on local administration responsiveness work to migrants

Ending Gender-Based Violence Hannah E. Britton, 2020-04-16 South African women's still increasing presence in local provincial and national institutions has inspired sweeping legislation aimed at advancing women's rights and opportunity Yet the country remains plagued by sexual assault rape and intimate partner violence Hannah E Britton examines the reasons gendered violence persists in relationship to social inequalities even after women assume political power Venturing into South African communities Britton invites service providers religious and traditional leaders police officers and medical professionals to address gender based violence in their own words Britton finds the recent turn toward carceral solutions with a focus on arrests and prosecutions fails to address the complexities of the problem and looks at how changing specific community dynamics can defuse interpersonal violence She also examines how place and space affect the implementation of policy and suggests practical ways policymakers can support street level workers Clear eyed and revealing Ending Gender Based Violence offers needed tools for breaking cycles of brutality and inequality around the world
