David J. Dunn,Hans Günter Brauch,Pamela Burton,2024-04-26 This book charts John W Burton s transition from practitioner in diplomacy to pioneer in the theory of peace research thinking on world society and conflict resolution Born in 1915 given his father s name it was assumed that he would follow his father and become a Christian missionary He did not he joined the Australian Public Service From a junior position he rose rapidly He was forthright and some found him irritating or worse He progressed to the highest levels of policy making Amidst some controversy he resigned abruptly in 1951 He then worked on his farm outside Canberra writing avidly He did not intend to become an academic but in 1963 he was offered a position in International Relations at University College in London and he accepted He was key to the foundation of the International Peace Research Association IPRA in 1964 and of the Conflict Research Society in the UK because he thought that words and ideas were not enough there needed to be instrumentsof change Looking back he was in fact a secular missionary His aim Simple to change the world This book is an exploration of how conflict should be reinterpreted The ideas of his work are a product not of any metaphysical approach but of experience Burton knew the field Cold War diplomacy civil strife reforming organisations resistance to change He had been there and he found much to criticise This book illustrates what he had to offer and explains why These readings reveal shifts in his ideas cohering incrementally integrated into a new framework This book presents his pioneering and relevant work Transcending disciplinary boundaries it will be of interest to students as well as professionals who address conflict at all levels of society from family to state      The Wireless World and Radio Review
