Night Is For Hunting The John Marsden:

The Night is for Hunting John Marsden, 2001 While trying to care for a group of abandoned young children five Australian teenagers continue their struggle for survival and their resistance against the enemy invading their homeland John Marsden's Will Emmeline Garnett, 1998-01-01 John Marsden was a mentally retarded Lancashire gentleman looked after by his aunt When he died his estate passed to George Wright a servant who was given stewardship of the estate This book looks at the legal wrangle which followed Children's Literature and the Fin de Siècle Roderick McGillis, 2003-11-30 The close of a century invites both retrospection and prognostication As a period of transition it also brings a sense of uncertainty finality and apocalypticism These feelings stem from various events such as political turmoil scientific advancements and social change As might be expected literature reflects such changes and the feelings they engender But perhaps more surprisingly children's literature is especially sensitive to such matters and fiction for children often struggles with dark and unpleasant issues This book examines fin de siècle tensions in 19th and 20th century children's literature from around the world Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and the volume ranges over a disparate variety of topics These include poetry series books pacifist fiction gender issues religion and literature eco criticism minority experiences humor and the Holocaust fantasy and science fiction and computer culture In exploring these issues in relation to children's literature the contributors reveal the shifting nature of our values and the world in which we live Global in nature the chapters look at children's literature from such places as Germany Holland the United Kingdom Australia and the United States The Europa Directory of Literary Awards and Prizes Susan Leckey, 2015-12-22 A complete guide to the major awards and prizes of the literary world An invaluable source of information on awards and prizes world wide Covers over 1 000 awards and prizes Comprehensive background information on each award Extensive contact details Contents Includes internationally awarded prizes along with prestigious national awards Subject areas covered include adult and children's fiction non fiction poetry lifetime's achievement translation and drama Information is provided on the history of each award its purpose what is awarded how often the prize is awarded eligibility and restrictions the awarding organization and the most recent recipients Full contact details of the awarding organization are provided including main contact name postal address e mail and Internet address telephone and fax numbers Fully indexed by keyword awarding organization and award by subject

Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children s literature

Australian Book Review ,2002 The Night is for Hunting John Marsden, Looking for Trouble John Marsden,1996-11-01 A warm and funny novel from the bestselling author of the Tomorrow series Staying Alive in Year 5 Cool School and Creep Street Australia s king of young adult fiction The Australian Last week Mrs Hazell got us to write a story called The Biggest Disaster I Ever Caused I should have asked for extra time to write it I ve got a feeling that by tomorrow I ll be able to do a whole new version Tony and his friends are seriously bored with their lives They go looking for trouble But when a strange and secretive family move in down the road Tony begins to wonder whether trouble hasn t come looking for him And once trouble finds him it doesn t want to let him go

Reading Race Clare Bradford,2013-05-09 How do children s books relate to the

cultures that produce them and how do they influence those cultures In Reading Race Clare Bradford looks at representations of Australia's indigenous peoples in texts for children She shows how these varying representations have helped to colour the attitudes beliefs and assumptions of different generations of Australians To what extent have children's books enabled readers to understand Aboriginal culture relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people and relationships between Aboriginality and national identity Bradford draws on examples from popular and literary children's books of all genres fiction non fiction picture books and school texts She reveals that many children's books display the tensions and uncertainties inherent in relations between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people Bradford also uncovers the different ideologies of race that have informed Australian children's texts from the nineteenth century to currently popular writers demonstrating cultural shifts in the representation of Aboriginality over time The result is a ground breaking and intelligent picture of how Australian children's books by both white and Aboriginal writers have negotiated the matter of race Reading Race will enhance the ways in which we come to read and understand the complex and delicate issues around Aboriginal white relations It will be an invaluable resource in the fields of post colonial studies Indigenous and Aboriginal studies literary and cultural studies and children's literature

Crossover

Fiction Sandra L. Beckett, 2010-11-24 In Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett explores the global trend of crossover literature and explains how it is transforming literary canons, concepts of readership, the status of authors, the publishing industry, and bookselling practices. This study will have significant relevance across disciplines as scholars in literary studies, media and cultural studies, visual arts, education, psychology, and sociology examine the increasingly blurred borderlines between adults and young people in contemporary society, notably with regard to their consumption of popular culture.

Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Melanie Duckworth, Annika Herb, 2023-10-04 Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Roots and Winged Seeds explores cultural and historical aspects of the representation of plants in Australian children's and young adult literature, encompassing colonial, postcolonial, and Indigenous perspectives. While plants tend to be backgrounded as of less narrative interest than animals and humans, this book, in conversation with the field of critical plant studies, approaches them as living beings worthy of attention. Australia is home to over 20,000 species of native plants, from pungent Eucalypts to twisting mangroves, from tiny orchids to spiky silvery spinifex. Indigenous Australians have lived with, relied upon, and cultivated these plants for many thousands of years. When European explorers and colonists first invaded Australia, unfamiliar species of plants captured their imagination. Vulnerable to bushfires, climate change, and introduced species, plants continue to occupy fraught but vital places in Australian ecologies, texts, and cultures. Discussing writers from Ambelin Kwaymullina and Aunty Joy Murphy to May Gibbs and Ethel Turner, and embracing transnational perspectives from Ukraine, Poland, and Aotearoa (New Zealand), Storying Plants addresses the stories told about plants but also the stories that plants themselves tell, engaging with the wide-ranging significance of plants in Australian children's and Young Adult literature.
