Night Light An Anthology 2014

Seyed Mohammad Lolaki

Night Light An Anthology 2014:

Afloat in Light David Adès, 2017 David Ades luminous and honest collection Afloat in Light is chiefly a celebration of fatherhood and of paying attention utilising Simone Weil's notion that attention is the rarest and purest form of generosity. The collection extends to existence and loss and a discourse on motive and meaning. Maps and moral compass are never far away in such explorations and like all good navigators Ades consults the moon and the stars to guide him through emotional terrain that crosses the globe via Australia India and the United States. Poems about connection and love familial intimate parental and friendship hold their weight of history via scar tissue and heritage to allow a vast and full space to fill the maps of our lives. Afloat in Light delicately balances that most crucial aspect of life of how the ordinary is anything but. Ades is a poet that fully harnesses the verve of small miracles. Libby Hart Apocalypse Girl Dreaming Jennifer Brozek, Peek into the mind and dreams of award winning editor and author Jennifer Brozek. Travel from the weird west to the hidden worlds of Kendrick all the way to the far reaches of space. This collection contains twenty previously published short stories and includes the brand new Kember Empire story Found on the Body of a Soldier. Enjoy your journey and don't forget your survival gear. Apocalypse Girl is waiting. Includes a foreword by science fiction author Jody Lynn Nye. A treat for military SF weird western and urban fantasy readers. Fans of Brozek's Karen Wilson Chronicles won't want to miss this one. Lucy A Snyder author of SPELLBENT. Like opposite shores the realm of Jennifer Brozek's stories are bounded on one front by beautiful magic and on the other by nebulous horror and the tireless swell of her imagination surges against each with equal force. Eric J Guignard editor of AFTER DEATH and author of BAGGAGE OF ETERNAL NIGHT. Jennifer Brozek's stories immediately draw you in and leave you wanting more. A well written and diverse collection. Apocalypse Girl Dreaming has something for everyone. Janine K Spendlove author of the War of the Seasons series.

Adaptations in the Franchise Era Kyle Meikle, 2019-01-24 Adaptations in the Franchise Era re-evaluates adaptation's place in a popular culture marked by the movement of content and audiences across more media borders than ever before. While adaptation has historically been understood as the transfer of stories from one medium to another more often than not from novel to film the growing interconnectedness of media and media industries in the early twenty first century raises new questions about the form and function of adaptation as both a product and a process. Where does adaptation fit within massive franchises that span pages stages screens and theme parks. Rising scholar Kyle Meikle illuminates adaptation's enduring and essential role in the rise of franchises in the 2000s and 2010s. During that decade and a half adaptations set the foundation for multiplexed multiplied film series piloted streaming television's forays into original programming found their way into audiences hands in apps and video games and went live in theatrical experiences on Broadway and beyond. The proliferation of adaptations was matched only by a proliferation of adaptation as fans remixed and remade their favourite franchises online and off. This volume considers how producers and consumers defined adaptations and how adaptations defined themselves through the endless

intertextual play of the franchise era

Diverging Approaches of Political Islamic Thought in Iran since the 1960s

Seyed Mohammad Lolaki, 2019-11-14 This book argues that Political Islam in the Iranian context evolved into three main schools of thought during the 1960s and 1970s Jurisprudential Islam led by Ayatollah Khomeini Leftist Islam led by Shariati and Liberal Islam led by Bazargan Despite the fact that all schools seek an Islamic state their chosen methods and philosophical approaches diverge considerably The synthesis of these three contrasting socio political views is structured here to provide a coherent interpretation by means of ongoing comparison This method has so far not been presented in academic studies within the field of Political Islam Furthermore this book provides a critical analysis of the aforementioned Political Islam schools in Iran their similarities and differences relative success or failure their contribution to the revolution of 1979 and how they have evolved from the pre revolution era to the present

Close Encounters of the Third Kind

Dana Polan, 2024-10-03 Steven Spielberg s Close Encounters of the Third Kind 1977 is a film very much of its cinematic moment combining the gritty realism of entrapment in the everyday with furtive dreams of escape Dana Polan s compelling study of the film examines its significance to New Hollywood cinema and the science fiction genre He argues that Close Encounters is a film that is an allegory of the cinematic experience overall it both narrates a tale of visual seduction and plays it out viscerally for the spectator who shares the amazement of the protagonist Roy Neary as his mundane reality is transformed into something awe inspiring Providing an in depth look into the film s production history including all three different versions Polan situates Close Encounters within Spielberg s repertoire He argues that despite the film s popular success it is in fact a rejection of several entrenched American values including family home and marriage It offers through its visual fascination alternative understandings of masculinity and morality familial responsibility and what it means to follow the American Dream different historical periods situate works of horror literature within the social cultural historical and intellectual currents of their respective eras creating a seamless narrative of the genre's evolution from ancient times to the present. The second section demonstrates how otherwise unrelated works of horror have influenced each other how horror subgenres have evolved and how a broad range of topics within horror such as ghosts vampires religion and gender roles have been handled across time. The set also provides alphabetically arranged reference entries on authors works and specialized topics that enable readers to zero in on information and concepts presented in the other sections.

Horror Literature through History

Lunar Gothic Elana Gomel, Simon Bacon, 2025-08-19 This book explores the captivating intersection of lunar influence and the Gothic imagination revealing how the moon has shaped narratives of horror mystery and transformation across cultures and media. Edited by Elana Gomel and Simon Bacon this volume delves into the genre of Lunar Gothic tracing its roots from ancient folklore to contemporary science fiction and horror. Readers will encounter a diverse array of essays that examine the moon's role as both a setting and a character in Gothic narratives. From the haunting presence of lunar deities and werewolves to the eerie landscapes of the moon in science fiction this collection uncovers the moon's dual nature as a symbol of both enlightenment and terror. Contributors explore themes such as gender identity and the supernatural offering fresh perspectives on the moon's enduring impact on the human psyche. A must read for scholars and enthusiasts of the Gothic science fiction and cultural studies this book invites readers to reconsider the moon's place in our collective imagination. Whether you are a researcher student or curious reader Lunar Gothic offers a comprehensive and thought provoking exploration of the moon's dark allure and its influence on storytelling across time and space.

Poetic Encounters in the Americas Peter Ramos, 2019-10-08 Poetic Encounters in the Americas Remarkable Bridge examines the ways in which U.S. and Latin American modernist canons have been in cross cultural mutually enabling conversation especially through the act of literary translation. Examining eighteen U.S. and Latin American poets my book is one of the few works of criticism to present case studies in U.S. and Latin American poetries in dialogues that highlight the social life and imaginative encounters obtained through methodologies of translation and innovations in poetic technique.

From Light to Dark Tim Edensor, 2017-03-21 Light pervades the world and when it is not light darkness emerges and is combated by electric illumination. Despite this globally shared human experience in which spaces appear radically different depending on time season and weather social science investigation on the subject is meager. From Light to Dark fills this gap focusing on our interaction with daylight illumination and darkness. Tim Edensor begins by examining the effects of daylight on our perception of landscape drawing on artworks particular landscapes and architectural practice. He then considers the ways in which illumination is often contested and can be used to express power looking at how capitalist class ethnic military and state power use lighting to reinforce their authority over space. Edensor also considers light artists such as Olafur Eliasson and festivals of illumination before turning a critical eye to the supposedly dangerous sinister associations of darkness. In examining the modern city as a space of fantasy through electric illumination

he studies how we are seeking and should seek new forms of darkness in reaction to the perpetual glow of urban lighting Highly original and absorbingly written From Light to Dark analyzes a vast array of artistic interventions diverse spaces and lighting technologies to explore these most basic human experiences Film Noir Light and Shadow Alain Silver,2023-12-12 Despite a glut of black and white filters the digital revolution in videography has all but abandoned the art science beauty and power of cinematic lighting that literally illuminated the Golden Age of motion pictures Film Noir Light and Shadow explores an era before CGI a time when every photon mattered and the lighting of a set served a grander purpose than simply rendering its subjects visible Edited by Alain Silver and James Ursini the duo behind numerous critically acclaimed studies of other aspects of noir this anthology presents a series of essays that examine the visual style of the filmmakers of cinema s classic period Some focus on individual pictures or directors others discuss elements of style or sub groups of movies within the movement All are sharply focused on what makes the noir phenomenon unique in American and global cinematic history Aside from highlighting the innovative work of its editors and their late colleague Robert Porfirio Film Noir Light and Shadow also shares its light with a bevy of contributors who have written and edited their own books on the subject a list of luminaries that includes Sheri Chinen Biesen Shannon Clute and Richard Edwards Julie Grossman Delphine Letort Robert Miklitsch R Barton Palmer Homer Pettet Marlisa Santos Imogen Sara Smith and Tony Williams As befits the topic this volume is lavishly illustrated with 500 images that capture the richness and breadth of the classic period s imagery making it an ideal companion for students of the genre film historians sprocket fiends and the retrospectively inclined
