attention and yet only a handful of countries account for 75% of the world's visitor arrivals. The other 200 or so are left to fight for a share of the remaining 25%. Therefore, destination marketers at city, state, and national levels have arguably a far more challenging role than other services or consumer goods marketers. Destination Marketing: an integrated marketing communication approach focuses on the five core tenets of integrated marketing communications. These embody both the opportunities and challenges facing Destination Marketing Organisations (DMOs) and are:

1. Profitable customer relationships
2. Enhancing stakeholder relationships
3. Cross-functional processes
4. Stimulating purposeful dialogue with customers
5. Generating message synergy

The author seeks to provide a rationale for DMOs to develop a structure, roles, and goals of DMOs; to examine the key challenges and constraints facing DMOs; to impart a destination branding process; to develop a philosophy of integrated marketing communications; to lead the emergence of visitor and stakeholder relationship management; and to set forth options for performance measurement.
