Photographing Nature Ralph A. Clevenger, 2009-10-29. 25 years of nature photography instruction in one gorgeous full color hands-on course. Anyone can photograph nature just step outside and you're on location. But becoming a good nature photographer takes expert training. In Photographing Nature, Ralph Clevenger whose images have appeared in such publications as Nature's Best and National Geographic shares the techniques he's been personally using and teaching to aspiring photographers for the last 25 years in his popular nature photography course at the elite Brooks Institute. In this stunning four color course in a book, each chapter opens with a spectacular photo spread from the natural world that Clevenger uses to illustrate themes and techniques essential to mastering nature photography. Just as he does in his classroom at Brooks, Clevenger explains how each photo was captured, the tools and techniques used, and typical problems related to capturing such a photo along with solutions. Chapters also include sample Q & A sessions as well as assignments you can try yourself. By the time you've worked through all of the techniques in this beautiful yet informative book, you'll not only photograph the world differently, you'll see it differently as well. With a foreword by George Lepp, one of North America's best known contemporary outdoor and nature photographers.

Australasian Nature Photography 10 South Australian Museum, 2013-10-03. The bioregion of Australia, New Zealand, Antarctica, and New Guinea possesses a unique natural heritage stretching back over 80 million years since the break up of the great southern continent of Gondwana. The South Australian Museum and Australian Geographic focus on enhancing a general knowledge of this extraordinary legacy by encouraging photography of the region's nature and wilderness and promoting an annual competition to find the Australian Geographic ANZANG Nature Photographer of the Year. Australasian Nature Photography ANZANG Tenth Collection presents the finest photographs submitted to the 2013 Australian Geographic ANZANG Nature Photographer of the Year competition. Each photograph is accompanied by technical information as well as anecdotes about how the picture was taken, which will stimulate yet further interest in the flora and fauna and their conservation in the region.
