Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience

Teaching and Learning Shakespeare through Theatre-based Practice Tracy Irish, Jennifer Kitchen, 2023-12-28 How can the study of Shakespeare contribute to equipping young people for the challenges of an uncertain future This book argues for the necessity of a Shakespeare education that finds meaning in the texts through inviting in the prior knowledge experiences and ideas of students combines intellectual social and emotional learning and develops a critical perspective on what a cultural inheritance is all about It offers a comprehensive exploration of the educational principles underpinning theatre based practice and explains how and why this practice can open up the possibilities of Shakespeare study in the classroom It empowers Shakespeare educators working with young people aged 5 18 to interact critically creatively and collaboratively with Shakespeare as a living artist Drawing on the authors research and experience with organizations including the Royal Shakespeare Company Shakespeare s Globe the Folger and Coram Shakespeare Schools Foundation Part One consolidates recent developments in the field and engages in lively dialogue with core questions of Shakespeare s place in the classroom Part Two curates a series of interviews with leaders and practitioners from the above and other Shakespeare institutions exploring their core principles and practices Part Three presents chapters from and about classroom teachers who share their experiences of successfully embedding theatre based approaches to Shakespeare in their own diverse contexts
