Introduction of Individual Multimedia Presentation
Hook Bring your reader in with an interesting and engaging hook	In 2018, NFL star Kareem Hunt was involved in a scandal where video aired of him violently abusing his girlfriend in a Cleveland hotel. It was later released that the NFL had access to this video months prior, but chose not to investigate one of its star players.
Highlight Significance of your issue + place into context Why is this issue important?	This shines a light on a wider NFL issue of the mishandling of domestic abuse cases. "Out of bounds" is my analysis of the powers of justice and the National Football League and, specifically, how they pertain to the handling of domestic abuse cases. The National Coalition against domestic violence defines it as, "the intentional, physical, or sexual assault of an intimate partner"

Cultural Diversity and Global Media Eugenia Siapera, 2010-03-08 Cultural Diversity and Global Media explores the relationship between the media and multiculturalism Summarises and critically discusses current approaches to multiculturalism and the media from a global perspective Explores both the theoretical debates and empirical findings on multiculturalism and the media Assumes the new perspective of mediation of cultural diversity which critically combines elements of previous theories in order to gain a better understanding of the relationship between the media and cultural diversity Explores media moments of production representation and consumption while incorporating arguments on their shifting roles and boundaries Examines separately the role of the internet which is linked to many changes in patterns of media production representation and to increased possibilities for diasporic and transnational communication Contains pedagogical features that enable readers to understand and critically engage with the material and draws upon and reviews an extensive bibliography providing a useful reference tool

Research in Education, 1974 Digital Media Usage Across the Life Course Paul G. Nixon, Rajash Rawal, Andreas Funk, 2016-06-23 New York Times columnist Thomas Friedman declared the modern age in which we live as the age of distraction in 2006 The basis of his argument was that technology has changed the ways in which our minds function and our capacity to dedicate ourselves to any particular task Others assert that our attention spans and ability to learn have been changed and that the use of media devices has become essential to many people's daily lives and indeed the impulse to use technology is harder to resist than unwanted urges for eating alcohol or sex This book seeks to portray the see-saw like relationship that we have with technology and how that relationship impacts upon our lived lives Drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives that cross traditional subject boundaries we examine the ways in which we both react to and are to an extent shaped by the technologies we interact with and how we construct the relationships with others that we facilitate via the use of Information Communication Technologies ICTs be it as discreet online-only relationships or the blending of ICTs enabled communication with real-life co-present interactions

(Multi) Media Translation Yves Gambier, Henrik Gottlieb, 2001-09-06 The globalisation of communication networks has increased the domains of translation and is challenging ever more the translator's role This volume is a collection of contributions from two different conferences Misano 1997 and Berlin 1998 Multi-Media translation especially screen translation TV cinema video has made more explicit the complexities of any communication and has led us to take a fresh look at the translator's strategies and behaviours Several papers ponder the concepts of media and multimedia the necessity of interdisciplinarity the polysemiotic dimension of audiovisual media Quite a few discuss the current transformations in audiovisual media policy A great many deal with practices mainly in subtitling but also in interpreting for TV and surtitling what are the quality parameters and the conditions to meet audience's expectations Finally some show the cultural and linguistic implications of screen translation Digitalisation is changing production and broadcasting and speeding up convergence between media telecommunications and information and communication technology Is multi-media translation a new field of study or an umbrella framework for scholars from various disciplines Is it a trick to overcome the absence of prestige in Translation Studies Or is it just a buzz word which gives rise to confusion These questions remain open the 26 contributions are partial answers
