Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare, 2012 Confronting the Mystery of God Gaspar Martinez, 2002-05-13 A highly insightful study of three major movements in Roman Catholic theology over the past thirty years This fascinating work of theological scholarship offers an exceptionally broad scope and powerfully unifying theme Gaspar Martinez first offers penetrating interpretations of three major contemporary theologians working on three continents in quite dissimilar historical cultural social and economic situations Then he goes on to illustrate how Johannes Metz Gustavo GutiTrrez and David Tracy each had a tense ongoing relationship to the mid twentieth century theologians and movements that formed them Karl Rahner nouvelle theologie and Bernard Lonergan respectively Martinez brilliantly contextualizes each of these thinkers In broad strokes he sketches postwar Germany postcolonial Peru and the American century and shows how each man was formed by his era He also examines the lines of influence and relationship between these theologians and some of their nontheological contemporaries Metz and Adorno Bloch and Benjamin GutiTrrez and Paulo Freire JosT Carlos Mariategui and the novelist JosT Marfa Arguedas and Tracy and thinkers from Eliade and Ricoeur to Gadamer and Derrida Martinez convincingly illustrates how each of these theologians in recent years has focused more directly on the mystery of God entailing greater emphasis on spirituality and mysticism with the consequence that the more properly theological their theologies have become the more they have become negative theologies

The Resilient Apocalypse Julia A. Kushigian, 2024-05 Portraits of good battling evil in the geography of hell come in many forms in the Hispanic World Apocalyptic nightmares frightful images of chaos and death are inclusive and interrelated yet simultaneously project an exceptional quality never seen or experienced before the mother of all battles I am the only one who can fix it This investigation explores how narrative logic may challenge unified notions of finalities when images remain unfulfilled in a proscribed End By redeploying transglobal character and narrative potential the Apocalypse suggests bewildering complexities as it trains its lens on New Beginnings Here analysis explores resilient formulas for combating the End through resistance in Latin America Spain and Latin communities in the US Whether revealed through gilded illustrations messianic chronicles poetry Baroque letters racially motivated novels sexuality and spirituality in film or intimidating immigrant photos apocalyptic examples explode notions of final moments The Resilient Apocalypse ironically performs as both an internal defense a vehicle for mourning and a counter discourse to power a mechanism for resistance This study argues for a strategy that listens to and keeps the enemy in sight and in mind a method for grappling with and engaging difference by decolonizing the politics of the End It reformulates an incomplete mythical and uncanny narrative into a poetics of resistance with communal solutions and obligations When the Apocalypse is unremittingly sought after to impose social justice salvation and reason it paradoxically introduces future hope against itself In the works of Beato de Li bana Sor Juana In s de la Cruz Cirilo Villaverde Cristina Garc a Mart n Kohan Jennifer Maytorena Taylor Santiago Roncagliolo Alfonso Cuar n etc rival traditions internalize competing apocalyptic worldviews and arrive at sustainable plans of action for negotiating the afterward By bracketing the finality of the End and proposing a tension between conflict archaeology and the transcendence of opposition through renovation salvation or hope this study reveals how plural competing viewpoints of the End go a long way to legitimizing each other Ultimately The Resilient Apocalypse traces a compelling narrative theory of unfulfilled promise that
